S. A. T. C. TO CONTINUE WORK ON WAR BASIS

Official Telegram Commands Carry On, Dishonorable Discharge Waifs Those Whose Conduct Is Unworthy or Those Who Neglect Studies

FURTHER DETAILS YET TO COME

The first point, regarding the A.S. T. C. under conditions brought about by the recent events, is that there has been no immediate change in procedure. Top officials of the school have been at headquarters in Washington for the last three days, working out plans for the future. It is not known when the details of this plan will be made public, but it is understood that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis.

The second point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The third point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The fourth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The fifth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The sixth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The seventh point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The eighth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The ninth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The tenth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The eleventh point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The twelfth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The thirteenth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The fourteenth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The fifteenth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The sixteenth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The seventeenth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The eighteenth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The nineteenth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

The twentieth point is that the A.S. T. C. will continue its work on a war basis, but the details of this plan are not yet known.

EVERYONE IS WORKING TO AIDE AMERICAN TROOPS

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., a member of the Allied forces, has been working hard to aid American troops. He has been doing this by giving speeches and writing articles in support of the war effort. He has also been visiting military bases and meeting with soldiers to help boost their morale. His efforts have been greatly appreciated by the troops, who look up to him as a symbol of national pride.

ROLLAND B. GRIFFIN

Corporal Of Squad, Corp. Dies of Pneumonia

Every member of the S. A. T. C. who knew Corporal Rolland B. Griffin, grieves his death. The fact of his friends and all those that knew him is a little more than is due to the bravery of Rolland B. Griffin. The brave soldier was making his last stand for his country when he was killed in action.

During the course of his training, Rolland B. Griffin proved himself to be a true patriot and a hero. He was always willing to risk his life for the sake of his country, and his death is a great loss to the nation.

The news of Rolland B. Griffin's death was received with great sorrow by all who knew him. His death is a great loss to the nation, and his memory will be forever kept alive in the hearts of all who knew him.