Published twice a week throughout the year by the students of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Entered as second-class matter, September 14, 1893, at the Post Office at Boston, Mass., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 110, Act of October 2, 1894, authorized October 17, 1894.

MANAGING BOARD
Paul C. Leonard '17 Chairman of the Board
Verner H. Hues '20 General Manager
Maxwell R. Box, Jr. Assistant Administrator

Subscriptions $1.25 for 10 issues, advance. Single copies three cents. Subscriptions within the Boston Postal District or outside the United States must be accompanied by postage at the rate of one cent for each copy sent, not exceeding at any time all other prints or extras without extra charge.

Although communications may be published unsigned if so requested, the name of the writer will be given only when it is submitted to the editor. The Editor reserves the right to accept or reject for publication any contributions submitted to him, and, while he will endeavor to return any material that is not used, he cannot assume any responsibility for it.

The Editor-in-Chief is always responsible for the opinions expressed in the editorial columns, and the Managing Editor for the news which appears in the news columns.

Published Saturday, November 16, 1918

IN CHARGE OF THIS ISSUE
Edward A. Ash Night Editor

November 16, 1918

N O arrangements have yet been made to better the opportunity for study in the S. A. T. C. It is high time that something was done, for now that peace has been declared the military work becomes far less important than the engineering. As the S. A. T. C. is now run, however, military work is carried on at the expense of the academic work, with the result that something is done, only exceptionally quick students will be able to get passing marks in their work.

Discipline will be necessary so long as there is an organization. It might be possible for any member of the class to receive a letter grade, but no one can be a marauder. At least, it will be necessary for the student to have a course of study.

As far as the students are concerned, the majority are doing all right and are studying. They are required to work and to cheer for their team. With the exception of the military work the authorities have provided the necessary accommodations and the authorities expect very little from the S. A. T. C.

FOOTBALL GAME TO BE PLAYED SATURDAY
Company D To Play Company F—Both Have Star Material

Sport is running high in Cambridge Sunday night. Company D and F are to have a championship football game next Saturday afternoon on the Tech Field. It is not a merely a company affair, but it is an Andrew's Day event, and the team is expected to have a lot of good stuff.

Those who know the players say that both sides have plenty of good stuff. The game is expected to be a fine one, and the place will be crowded.

At a meeting of the Managing Board Thursday afternoon the following elections were made in the News Department of THE TECH: Night Editors, Carl W. Harris and Edward A. Ash, both of the class of 1919; Graduate Editor, F. R. Freer; Western Writer, E. J. Veeder; News Staff, F. W. Adams '20. Ernest N. May, Henry C. Orsey and H. E. Follansbee all of the class of October 1918. Today, November 16, THE TECH completes its thirty-seventh year of continuous news service at the Institute.

A Cordial Letter from Chief Of Staff

On November 6, 1918, THE TECH completed its thirty-seventh year of continuous news service at the Institute.

At a meeting of the Managing Board Thursday afternoon the following elections were made in the News Department of THE TECH: Night Editors, Carl W. Harris and Edward A. Ash, both of the class of 1919; Graduate Editor, F. R. Freer; Western Writer, E. J. Veeder; News Staff, F. W. Adams '20. Ernest N. May, Henry C. Orsey and H. E. Follansbee all of the class of October 1918. Today, November 16, THE TECH completes its thirty-seventh year of continuous news service at the Institute.

The Personal Editors make the news column an important and popular feature of THE TECH. It is admitted that this column is not a very attractive one, but it is handled in a manner that is interesting to the students and that is of some consequence. This column can only be improved by the contribution of more students. The Editors are prepared to assist any student who wishes to contribute to the column. The ambition of the student will be encouraged by any means that are available.

Similarly, the Editorial Board is trying to make the news column an attractive one, and the student is invited to contribute to it. The student can contribute to the column by sending in articles or stories that he has written about himself or about the activities of the students of the Institute.

The Editors-in-Chief are always responsible for the opinions expressed in the editorial columns, and the Managing Editor for the news which appears in the news columns.

THE TECH is a student newspaper and is not responsible for any opinions expressed in the editorial columns. The Editor reserves the right to accept or reject for publication any contributions submitted to him, and, while he will endeavor to return any material that is not used, he cannot assume any responsibility for it.

On November 6, 1918, THE TECH completes its thirty-seventh year of continuous news service at the Institute.

At a meeting of the Managing Board Thursday afternoon the following elections were made in the News Department of THE TECH: Night Editors, Carl W. Harris and Edward A. Ash, both of the class of 1919; Graduate Editor, F. R. Freer; Western Writer, E. J. Veeder; News Staff, F. W. Adams '20. Ernest N. May, Henry C. Orsey and H. E. Follansbee all of the class of October 1918. Today, November 16, THE TECH completes its thirty-seventh year of continuous news service at the Institute.

The Personal Editors make the news column an important and popular feature of THE TECH. It is admitted that this column is not a very attractive one, but it is handled in a manner that is interesting to the students and that is of some consequence. This column can only be improved by the contribution of more students. The Editors are prepared to assist any student who wishes to contribute to the column. The ambition of the student will be encouraged by any means that are available.

Similarly, the Editorial Board is trying to make the news column an attractive one, and the student is invited to contribute to it. The student can contribute to the column by sending in articles or stories that he has written about himself or about the activities of the students of the Institute.

The Editors-in-Chief are always responsible for the opinions expressed in the editorial columns, and the Managing Editor for the news which appears in the news columns.

THE TECH is a student newspaper and is not responsible for any opinions expressed in the editorial columns. The Editor reserves the right to accept or reject for publication any contributions submitted to him, and, while he will endeavor to return any material that is not used, he cannot assume any responsibility for it.

On November 6, 1918, THE TECH completes its thirty-seventh year of continuous news service at the Institute.

At a meeting of the Managing Board Thursday afternoon the following elections were made in the News Department of THE TECH: Night Editors, Carl W. Harris and Edward A. Ash, both of the class of 1919; Graduate Editor, F. R. Freer; Western Writer, E. J. Veeder; News Staff, F. W. Adams '20. Ernest N. May, Henry C. Orsey and H. E. Follansbee all of the class of October 1918. Today, November 16, THE TECH completes its thirty-seventh year of continuous news service at the Institute.

The Personal Editors make the news column an important and popular feature of THE TECH. It is admitted that this column is not a very attractive one, but it is handled in a manner that is interesting to the students and that is of some consequence. This column can only be improved by the contribution of more students. The Editors are prepared to assist any student who wishes to contribute to the column. The ambition of the student will be encouraged by any means that are available.

Similarly, the Editorial Board is trying to make the news column an attractive one, and the student is invited to contribute to it. The student can contribute to the column by sending in articles or stories that he has written about himself or about the activities of the students of the Institute.

The Editors-in-Chief are always responsible for the opinions expressed in the editorial columns, and the Managing Editor for the news which appears in the news columns.

THE TECH is a student newspaper and is not responsible for any opinions expressed in the editorial columns. The Editor reserves the right to accept or reject for publication any contributions submitted to him, and, while he will endeavor to return any material that is not used, he cannot assume any responsibility for it.