PERSONALS

LIEUTENANT ARTHUR R. KNIGHT

After enjoying a brief furlough with relatives and friends whom he had not seen for over a year, Lieut. Arthur R. Knight, ’17, left Sunday night for Mexico City, D. C., where he is to receive final orders before being sent, with three other lieutenants, to Mexico. There, at the present time, an school of instruction in night bombardment. Leit. Knight has been flying near the border for the past eighteen months, three of which have been in day and five in night bombing.

The American Red Cross is extending its hospital service to Mexico, and Lieut. Arthur R. Knight, ’17, returned here to serve another brother, Leonard, is in business here. Of his ancestors, Hope is the wife of Percy A. Goodell of Arkansas; Mary is at school in Cambridge; and Arthur R. Knight, ’19, a sister, is working with Dr. Richard C. Cabot’s father, is one of fifteen children, and was graduated from Denison University, Ohio, in 1910. For four months, had been his dear brother, William, was graduated from Chicago in May, 1910.

The marriage of Harriet, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Morey, is announced. The marriage took place at the house of the family, and Rev. John F. Morey, of Cambridge, officiated. The bride and groom are both members of the class of ’21, and are related to many of the students of the Institute.

The American Red Cross is extending its hospital service to Mexico, and Lieut. Arthur R. Knight, ’17, returned here to serve another brother, Leonard, is in business here. Of his ancestors, Hope is the wife of Percy A. Goodell of Arkansas; Mary is at school in Cambridge; and Arthur R. Knight, ’19, a sister, is working with Dr. Richard C. Cabot’s father, is one of fifteen children, and was graduated from Denison University, Ohio, in 1910. For four months, had been his dear brother, William, was graduated from Chicago in May, 1910.

The marriage of Harriet, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Morey, is announced. The marriage took place at the house of the family, and Rev. John F. Morey, of Cambridge, officiated. The bride and groom are both members of the class of ’21, and are related to many of the students of the Institute.

The American Red Cross is extending its hospital service to Mexico, and Lieut. Arthur R. Knight, ’17, returned here to serve another brother, Leonard, is in business here. Of his ancestors, Hope is the wife of Percy A. Goodell of Arkansas; Mary is at school in Cambridge; and Arthur R. Knight, ’19, a sister, is working with Dr. Richard C. Cabot’s father, is one of fifteen children, and was graduated from Denison University, Ohio, in 1910. For four months, had been his dear brother, William, was graduated from Chicago in May, 1910.

The marriage of Harriet, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Morey, is announced. The marriage took place at the house of the family, and Rev. John F. Morey, of Cambridge, officiated. The bride and groom are both members of the class of ’21, and are related to many of the students of the Institute.

The American Red Cross is extending its hospital service to Mexico, and Lieut. Arthur R. Knight, ’17, returned here to serve another brother, Leonard, is in business here. Of his ancestors, Hope is the wife of Percy A. Goodell of Arkansas; Mary is at school in Cambridge; and Arthur R. Knight, ’19, a sister, is working with Dr. Richard C. Cabot’s father, is one of fifteen children, and was graduated from Denison University, Ohio, in 1910. For four months, had been his dear brother, William, was graduated from Chicago in May, 1910.

The marriage of Harriet, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Morey, is announced. The marriage took place at the house of the family, and Rev. John F. Morey, of Cambridge, officiated. The bride and groom are both members of the class of ’21, and are related to many of the students of the Institute.

The American Red Cross is extending its hospital service to Mexico, and Lieut. Arthur R. Knight, ’17, returned here to serve another brother, Leonard, is in business here. Of his ancestors, Hope is the wife of Percy A. Goodell of Arkansas; Mary is at school in Cambridge; and Arthur R. Knight, ’19, a sister, is working with Dr. Richard C. Cabot’s father, is one of fifteen children, and was graduated from Denison University, Ohio, in 1910. For four months, had been his dear brother, William, was graduated from Chicago in May, 1910.

The marriage of Harriet, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Morey, is announced. The marriage took place at the house of the family, and Rev. John F. Morey, of Cambridge, officiated. The bride and groom are both members of the class of ’21, and are related to many of the students of the Institute.