Personal

Saturday, January 11, 1919

In Charge of this issue

R. H. Smithwick ’14

Night Editor

TakE YOUR PART IN THE ACTIVITIES

The biggest problem before the Institute Committee, and those interested in student life in the Institute is to get the men at work in the dormitories. At present there is no dormitory, and this is one of the things we must get started. The men who are going to be in the dormitories must be organized in some sort of a manner. The dormitories must be run on military lines. The men must have a daily roll call, and they must be dressed in uniform.

The dormitories must be clean and orderly. The men must be taught how to keep their rooms clean. They must be taught how to keep their clothes clean. The men must be taught how to keep their rooms in order. They must be taught how to keep their clothes in order.

The dormitories must be run on a military basis. The men must be taught how to work together. They must be taught how to cooperate. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a business basis. The men must be taught how to work for a profit. They must be taught how to make money.

The dormitories must be run on a social basis. The men must be taught how to socialize. They must be taught how to have fun.

The dormitories must be run on a religious basis. The men must be taught how to be religious. They must be taught how to be good Christians.

The dormitories must be run on a political basis. The men must be taught how to be political. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a moral basis. The men must be taught how to be moral. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a scientific basis. The men must be taught how to be scientific. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a literary basis. The men must be taught how to be literary. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a musical basis. The men must be taught how to be musical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a physical basis. The men must be taught how to be physical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a moral basis. The men must be taught how to be moral. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a scientific basis. The men must be taught how to be scientific. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a literary basis. The men must be taught how to be literary. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a musical basis. The men must be taught how to be musical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a physical basis. The men must be taught how to be physical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a moral basis. The men must be taught how to be moral. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a scientific basis. The men must be taught how to be scientific. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a literary basis. The men must be taught how to be literary. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a musical basis. The men must be taught how to be musical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a physical basis. The men must be taught how to be physical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a moral basis. The men must be taught how to be moral. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a scientific basis. The men must be taught how to be scientific. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a literary basis. The men must be taught how to be literary. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a musical basis. The men must be taught how to be musical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a physical basis. The men must be taught how to be physical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a moral basis. The men must be taught how to be moral. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a scientific basis. The men must be taught how to be scientific. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a literary basis. The men must be taught how to be literary. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a musical basis. The men must be taught how to be musical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a physical basis. The men must be taught how to be physical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a moral basis. The men must be taught how to be moral. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a scientific basis. The men must be taught how to be scientific. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a literary basis. The men must be taught how to be literary. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a musical basis. The men must be taught how to be musical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a physical basis. The men must be taught how to be physical. They must be taught how to be good citizens.

The dormitories must be run on a moral basis. The men must be taught how to be moral. They must be taught how to be good citizens.