ACtiviTiEs WILL SoOn OcCUr Or N主要 WALKER MEMORIAL

During the past few days various activities have taken place in the Walker Memorial, which will occupy the larger part of the present week. Although the Naval Aviation Office is not quite ready, it has been opened. In the last few days, pictorial scenes have been hung in the room, and the decoration is being carried to the effect by the first few days of the week. The competition for vasa assistant manager is very keen, and the following officers have been elected for the season: J. H. Felton '20, R. G. Cochri and A. H. Biddle '22. The latter is the winner of the competition for the position of president, and the result was determined by the vote of the faculty and the students. The commission is now being given to the proper authorities, and the dates are set for the opening of the season. On the eve of the opening of the season, the college is now working on the various departments of the Walker Memorial, and the final touches are being given to it. The opening of the season will take place on Wednesday, February 8th, and the season will be continued until the close of the academic year. The first meeting of the season will be held at the Walker Memorial. The opening address will be given by the president of the college, and the program will include music, recitations, and a dramatic production. The evening will conclude with a dance.
