Freshman Swimmers Bid Fair To Equal Varsity’s Rep By Defeating Harvard In Tank

The freshman swimming team defeated Harvard 72 in the Boston Young American Christian Association tank last Thursday afternoon in Memorial Hall. The meet was started in which there were over three hundred persons present.

The first event was the fifty-yard dash, which was won by Francis Fish of the freshmen. The time was 27-23.

The second event was the one hundred-yard dash, which was won by Frank Fish of the freshmen. The time was 53-23.

The third event was the two hundred-yard dash, which was won by Collis Fish of the freshmen. The time was 57-23.

The fourth event was the four hundred-yard dash, which was won by Collis Fish of the freshmen. The time was 1:32-23.

The fifth event was the eighty-yard relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 27-23.

The sixth event was the 220-yard relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 43-23.

The seventh event was the 440-yard relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 1:44-23.

The eighth event was the 400-yard medley, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 4:04-23.

The final event was the 400-yard medley relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 4:30-23.

The freshmen team won the meet by a score of 102-92.

TIDE PROVES TOO STRONG

Swimming Team Meets With First Defeat In Four Years

The swimming team met with a little hard task but Wednesday evening was not its first defeat in four years at the hands of the Yale team. Yale won one of the races after a tie, but this is thought by many that the scores were out on point decision.

To explain the score does not represent the complexion of the competition.

The first event was the fifty-yard dash, which was won by H. C. Fish of the freshmen. The time was 4-5-23.

The second event was the one hundred-yard dash, which was won by H. C. Fish of the freshmen. The time was 27-23.

The third event was the two hundred-yard dash, which was won by H. C. Fish of the freshmen. The time was 53-23.

The fourth event was the four hundred-yard dash, which was won by H. C. Fish of the freshmen. The time was 1:32-23.

The fifth event was the eighty-yard relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 27-23.

The sixth event was the 220-yard relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 43-23.

The seventh event was the 440-yard relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 1:44-23.

The eighth event was the 400-yard medley, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 4:04-23.

The final event was the 400-yard medley relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 4:30-23.

The freshmen swimming team defeated Harvard 72 in the Boston Young American Christian Association tank last Thursday afternoon in Memorial Hall. The meet was started in which there were over three hundred persons present.

The first event was the fifty-yard dash, which was won by Francis Fish of the freshmen. The time was 27-23.

The second event was the one hundred-yard dash, which was won by Frank Fish of the freshmen. The time was 53-23.

The third event was the two hundred-yard dash, which was won by Collis Fish of the freshmen. The time was 57-23.

The fourth event was the four hundred-yard dash, which was won by Collis Fish of the freshmen. The time was 1:32-23.

The fifth event was the eighty-yard relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 27-23.

The sixth event was the 220-yard relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 43-23.

The seventh event was the 440-yard relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 1:44-23.

The eighth event was the 400-yard medley, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 4:04-23.

The final event was the 400-yard medley relay, which was won by the freshmen. The time was 4:30-23.

The freshmen team won the meet by a score of 102-92.

The swimming team met with a little hard task but Wednesday evening was not its first defeat in four years at the hands of the Yale team. Yale won one of the races after a tie, but this is thought by many that the scores were out on point decision.

To explain the score does not represent the complexion of the competition.