A Mellin's Food Girl

Our baby has never been sick since born; has never been given anything but Mellin's Food prepared with

Mellin's Food Company
BOSTON, MASS.

WHOSE FINANCES NEAR
VAN HEEK IN FIFTH PLACE

 Specifications On the Balance Sheet

On last Wednesday afternoon the annual report of the South State Note Company's Finance and Organization was given. The President and the Treasurer, both of whom are former presidents of the Institute, have given considerable time and attention to the preparation of the report, which is to be sent to all the members.

The report is a comprehensive one, covering all the operations of the company during the past year. It includes a detailed statement of the assets and liabilities, a list of the officers and directors, and a report of the financial condition of the company. The report is printed in a handsome format, and is well worth reading. It is available from the company at a nominal cost.

RUNKLE STILL HOLDS THE LEAD IN WOODLING LEAGUE

Runkle still holds the lead in the Woodling League, but Robinson is close behind. Both men have shown excellent form this season, and it is expected that they will continue to do so.

The regular season of the league will end on May 10th, and the final playoff game will be played on May 11th. The winner of the playoff game will be declared the champion of the league.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

An important meeting of the International Organization of the United States was held in Washington last week. The meeting was attended by representatives from various parts of the country, and was presided over by the President of the organization.

The main topic of discussion was the future of the organization, and it was decided that the next meeting should be held in New York.

The meeting was well attended, and many new members were added to the organization. The officers of the organization were elected for the coming year, and the work of the organization was planned for the next year.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The annual meeting of the American Association of the United States was held in Washington last week. The meeting was attended by representatives from various parts of the country, and was presided over by the President of the association.

The main topic of discussion was the future of the association, and it was decided that the next meeting should be held in New York.

The meeting was well attended, and many new members were added to the association. The officers of the association were elected for the coming year, and the work of the association was planned for the next year.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The annual meeting of the American Association of the United States was held in Washington last week. The meeting was attended by representatives from various parts of the country, and was presided over by the President of the association.

The main topic of discussion was the future of the association, and it was decided that the next meeting should be held in New York.

The meeting was well attended, and many new members were added to the association. The officers of the association were elected for the coming year, and the work of the association was planned for the next year.