TENNIS SEASON STARTS WITH FORTY CANDIDATES SIGNED UP

Brookman '20 and Barron '20 Back—Tournament to be Held As Soon As Signups Are Ready

The Technology tennis team stands a good chance of winning again the New England Collegiate championship, with two of its old stars back, several dark-horses from the West and forty men out at the first meeting, according to Manager L. Boyden '20. The team last year made its reputation by winning seven out of eight games played, losing only to Yale and placing second to the same team in the Intercollegiate championships.

Several matches were staged last year, particularly in the New England Intercollegiate championship, which Technology won. Brookman was matched against Larmon of Dartmouth in the semi-finals and won by a score of three to two. In the finals Brook-man was defeated by Hendrickson of Amherst. However, Captain Wei and Brookman captured the doubles easily and won the championship for Technology.

Tournament games will be played on the Institute courts as soon as schedules can be made out. Anybody who can play at all may enter these tournaments—signups will cost fifty cents and the winners will be awarded the T. T. T.

The freshman manager wishes to announce that all men making the team can substitute this for gymnasium work.
