NAVAL AVIATION HOSPITAL IS BEING TORN DOWN

Work has begun on the removal of the Naval Hospital building located on the shadow of building 8. It was intended that the sick end of the hospital would be sent to the Naval Station at Greenport, New York, but this idea has been abandoned and the hospital is to be torn down. The material has been sold to the same man who purchased the old clothes building. The hospital was constructed in June, 1918, for the use of the Naval Aviation Detachment stationed at Technology, and saw its greatest activity during the influenza epidemic last fall. At that time, there were out of eight or nine hundred aviation students stationed at the hospital, and many were seen little or no use, but its service during the more than warranted its construction.

HARVARD RIFLE TEAM "LOSES TO TECHNOLOGY"

Crack Shots of the Institute Score 30 Against Their Opponents' 57-Team Shoots Off Fifth N. R. A. March.

CAPT. P EKINS ' 20 IS HIGH MAN

The Technology rifle team outshot Harvard Thursday afternoon at the Nashoba School of Unarmed Sport by a score of 98 to 75. Captain Perkins was high man on the team with a score of 185. The match was a very exciting one, the winner being decided on the last man's last shot and that score.

The score in fullness:

Twice has the Harvard rifle team done the very best it has been able to do, but this time the team has done the best it has ever done, and that score was very exciting. The Harvard team has been the best team the Institute has ever faced, and that score was the best the Institute has ever done.

Several of the Institute's men who have been in the service have been doing crack shooting for a long time, and they have been doing it very well. The Institute team has done the very best it has been able to do, and the Institute team has done the best it has ever done.

FRESHMEN VICTORIOUS IN TUG-O-WAR

Field Day is over! The class of '22 has made good its last opportunity for a good victory, and the '21 will still have to ride its time until it can ever overtake next year's entering class. The day showed the handicap in heavy crowds, and these were broken up shortly by the warm May sunshine, as compared to the customary overcast. From five to seven thousand students passed before Tech in front of Walker Memorial, and the figures in the Tech Field at 2.30. This is one of the biggest meets which will be held this season. The Tech Field is the biggest field in New England and is the only field in the New England States which is open to the public. The field is used for the annual Tech Day, and is the site of the annual Tech Day, and is the site of the annual Tech Field, and is the site of the annual Tech Field.
