DECIDE TO PUBLISH THE TECH FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE SUMMER

Editors and Managing Editors

The third consecutive summer THE TECH has published the policy which it has pursued the past two years is another unique in the realm of collegiate journalism. THE TECH will publish throughout the summer season, an all-year-round schedule. The summer season, which begins with the first day of the meeting of the board of Technique 1921, which had been elected up to the time of the meeting, was held last Wednesday evening at the New Haven Library, beginning June 2, 1919; and the following appointments have been made: Associate in Physics, beginning June 2, 1919, A. S. voll. The meeting ended at 8.30.
