SIDNEY M. BIDDELL '22 BACK WITH SWIMMING HONORS WON ABOUND

Sidney M. Biddell, former president of the freshman class, who was chosen as one of the four men to represent the United States in the recent Inter-Allied Games at the Finsbury Stadium, London, returned August 1, as guest of the U. S. B. S. Imperials.

The United States swimming team was composed of Ross, Illinois A. C., Biddell, New York; Tilton, Yale; and Gilchrist, C. A. U., South Dakota. The team left New York July 18 on the U. S. S. Great Northern, sailing for England, arriving in London July 22. Biddell described the trip as wonderful and said he was loath to leave the country for his college work begins to come in the form of summer camp to be held for Senior Units of the Institute.

The average number of swimmers starting in the Inter-Allied Games was about 700. While the quality of Biddell's swimming was not as high as the German or French swimmer's, he could set a world record in the 100-meter swim, the 100-meter back stroke, and the 400-meter medley relay. After the deal closed has been delayed in the financing as the American team had won with a total of 79 of 100 points. The deal was secured with a total of 13 points.

Biddell, as an officer, was nominated by the General Pershing for the U. S. S. Great Northern, to which he was appointed for the game of the races to be held on the Thames.

The average number of swimmers starting in the Inter-Allied Games was about 700. While the quality of Biddell's swimming was not as high as the German or French swimmer's, he could set a world record in the 100-meter swim, the 100-meter back stroke, and the 400-meter medley relay. After the deal closed has been delayed in the financing as the American team had won with a total of 79 of 100 points. The deal was secured with a total of 13 points.

Biddell, as an officer, was nominated by the General Pershing for the U. S. S. Great Northern, to which he was appointed for the game of the races to be held on the Thames.

The average number of swimmers starting in the Inter-Allied Games was about 700. While the quality of Biddell's swimming was not as high as the German or French swimmer's, he could set a world record in the 100-meter swim, the 100-meter back stroke, and the 400-meter medley relay. After the deal closed has been delayed in the financing as the American team had won with a total of 79 of 100 points. The deal was secured with a total of 13 points.

Biddell, as an officer, was nominated by the General Pershing for the U. S. S. Great Northern, to which he was appointed for the game of the races to be held on the Thames.

The average number of swimmers starting in the Inter-Allied Games was about 700. While the quality of Biddell's swimming was not as high as the German or French swimmer's, he could set a world record in the 100-meter swim, the 100-meter back stroke, and the 400-meter medley relay. After the deal closed has been delayed in the financing as the American team had won with a total of 79 of 100 points. The deal was secured with a total of 13 points.

Biddell, as an officer, was nominated by the General Pershing for the U. S. S. Great Northern, to which he was appointed for the game of the races to be held on the Thames.

The average number of swimmers starting in the Inter-Allied Games was about 700. While the quality of Biddell's swimming was not as high as the German or French swimmer's, he could set a world record in the 100-meter swim, the 100-meter back stroke, and the 400-meter medley relay. After the deal closed has been delayed in the financing as the American team had won with a total of 79 of 100 points. The deal was secured with a total of 13 points.

Biddell, as an officer, was nominated by the General Pershing for the U. S. S. Great Northern, to which he was appointed for the game of the races to be held on the Thames.

The average number of swimmers starting in the Inter-Allied Games was about 700. While the quality of Biddell's swimming was not as high as the German or French swimmer's, he could set a world record in the 100-meter swim, the 100-meter back stroke, and the 400-meter medley relay. After the deal closed has been delayed in the financing as the American team had won with a total of 79 of 100 points. The deal was secured with a total of 13 points.

Biddell, as an officer, was nominated by the General Pershing for the U. S. S. Great Northern, to which he was appointed for the game of the races to be held on the Thames.

The average number of swimmers starting in the Inter-Allied Games was about 700. While the quality of Biddell's swimming was not as high as the German or French swimmer's, he could set a world record in the 100-meter swim, the 100-meter back stroke, and the 400-meter medley relay. After the deal closed has been delayed in the financing as the American team had won with a total of 79 of 100 points. The deal was secured with a total of 13 points.

Biddell, as an officer, was nominated by the General Pershing for the U. S. S. Great Northern, to which he was appointed for the game of the races to be held on the Thames.