AERONAUTICAL SOCIETY
ADDS TO MANAGING BOARD

Luncheon and Meeting to be Held
This Week in Walker

The officers of the Aeronautical Soociety have announced that the following six men have been elected to the Managing Board of the Society, as a result of the competition lasting for three weeks: C. H. Durham '22, H. H.
Brown '22, R. P. Fairbanks '22, J. W.
Kendall '22, L. T. Leland '22 and Paul Winter, Jr., '22.

In addition to those named above, the following men are appointed to be held in reserve to fill vacancies
on the managing board as the的事 W. H. McLean '22, C. D. Ludington
'22, L. B. Hitchcock '21, F. O. Billings '22, R. Smith '22, and H. Mc-Lean '22. In addition to those named above, the following men are appointed
to fill vacancies on the managing board:

H. McLean '22, C. B. Stanwood '20, Kendall '21, J. L. Truslow '22 and Drew '22, L. B. Hitchcock '21, F. O. Billings '22, R. Smith '22, and H. Mc-

Lee '22. In addition to those named
above, the following men are appointed
to fill vacancies on the managing board:

H. McLean '22, C. B. Stanwood '20,
Kendall '21, J. L. Truslow '22 and
Drew '22, L. B. Hitchcock '21, F. O. Bill-
ings '22, R. Smith '22, and H. Mc-Lean '22. At 1:00 o'clock today there will be a handout followed by reading in the North Hall of the Walker Memorial for all competitors who have completed the competition in full.

The society is keeping the expense of the luncheon and meeting in a minimum. The work done by all the comdittee men. The topic will be discussed for the better planning of the social events and the maintenance of the society.

MEN ARE CHOSEN TO FILL
VACANT T. C. A. OFFICES

Harold Kempner '20, L. S. Vater '21,
and C. B. Stanwood Are Elected

On Wednesday and Thursday of last week the Technology Comics Association held elections, resulting in the appointment of Harold Kempner
'TC. A. president; L. S. Vater, TC. A.
vice-president and C. B. Stanwood, TC. A.
treasurer.

These elections were held at the T.
C. A. Office and were open to all unaffiliated students. Three new mem-er were elected, and the undermentioned election was made:

R. Smith '22, A. M. Perkins '22, and H.
McLean '22. The new officers will be held in reserve to fill vacancies
on the managing board as the result of the competition lasting for three weeks.

The officers of the Aeronautical So-

H. McLean '22, C. B. Stanwood '20,
Kendall '21, J. L. Truslow '22 and
Drew '22, L. B. Hitchcock '21, F. O. Bill-
ings '22, R. Smith '22, and H. Mc-

Lee '22. At 1:00 o'clock today there will be a handout followed by reading in the
North Hall of the Walker Memorial
for all competitors who have completed the competition in full.

The society is keeping the expense of the
luncheon and meeting in a minimum. The
work done by all the com-
dittee men. The topic will be discussed for the better
planning of the social events and the maintenance of the society.

MEN ARE CHOSEN TO FILL
VACANT T. C. A. OFFICES

Harold Kempner '20, L. S. Vater '21,
and C. B. Stanwood Are Elected

On Wednesday and Thursday of
last week the Technology Comics
Association held elections, resulting in
the appointment of Harold Kempner
'TC. A. president; L. S. Vater, TC. A.
vice-president and C. B. Stanwood, TC. A.
treasurer.

These elections were held at the T.
C. A. Office and were open to all unaffiliated students. Three new mem-
er were elected, and the under-
mentioned election was made:

R. Smith '22, A. M. Perkins '22, and H.
McLean '22. The new officers will be held in reserve to fill vacancies
on the managing board as the result of the
competition lasting for three weeks.

The officers of the Aeronautical So-