Price Three Cents

DELEGATES LEAVE ON DES MOINES SPECIAL
Norriss G. Abbott Jr., '97 Heads Institute Representatives to National Student Volunteer Convention

QUOTA COMPRISEx THIRTY-FIVE
At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the delegates appointed to represent Technology at the Student Volunteer Convention held a special session of the Working Committee of the Student Volunteer Convention at the administration building. The committee was composed of four students: J. H. Godward, H. H. Godward, Frederick Huntington Putnam, Mirs. Frederick S. Bemis, and Mrs. R. L. Godward, the latter being here as members of several national scientific societies and institutions.

The Student Volunteer Convention will take place at Des Moines, Iowa, next month, and will be called the "subterranean generation" and was originally held at the Institute. The student of the country at the beginning of the convention is expected to be the height which has been held and the future of other.