EASTMAN IS 'MR. SMITH'

IT COMES OUT AT LAST!

Announcement Is Made Just Before Biggest Gong Closes Biggest Annual Alumni Reunion Dinner Held in the Walker Memorial Tonight

Due to the sudden illness of President Maclaurin, who was confined to his home for five days suffering with a severe cold, he was not able to be present at tonight's dinner for which he had been the keynote speaker. In his absence, Mr. Eastman is the mysterious 'Mr. Smith'.

Mr. Maclaurin's complete statement was to the press at 6:30 o'clock, follows:

"In this celebration the college endeavors to fulfill its function of disseminating and marking the occasions by something that, to us, is meaningful to a new section where it would be to the best advantage to be kept in touch of the ever-growing needs. Early in the month I visited a number of..."
