History of the Campaign

The campaign was under the direction of J. Lloyd Bedford, as the General Chairman. The drive was prosecuted as rapidly in a quiet manner as possible, and the results of the campaign were as nearly all colleges were in the percentage of subscriptions reported from individual and corporate sources who seemed best able to attend a dinner which was attended by a force totalling some thirty members of the Alumni Association.

The contributions of the various districts were as follows:

- New England:
  - Massachusetts: $1,200
  - Rhode Island: $1,000
- New York:
  - City: $2,000
  - Outside of City: $3,000
- Pennsylvania:
  - Philadelphia: $5,000
  - Western Pennsylvania: $4,000
- Other:
  - Illinois: $2,500
  - Ohio: $3,500

The total amount raised was $15,000, which was used for the support of the Endowment Campaign.

Conclusion

The campaign was a great success, and the President of the Alumni Association, J. M. Litchfield, expressed his appreciation to all who had contributed to the drive. The money raised was used to support the Endowment Campaign, and the results of the campaign were as nearly all colleges were in the percentage of subscriptions reported from individual and corporate sources who seemed best able to attend a dinner which was attended by a force totalling some thirty members of the Alumni Association.
