TWO BALL ROOMS ARE ENGAGED FOR MUSICAL CLUB CONCERT

Large Demand for Tickets Necessitates an Extra Issue of Signups—Two Orchestras to Furnish Music for Dancing

PROGRAM OF CONCERT HAS BEEN ORGANIZED

The Combined Musical Clubs have organized a waiting list for returned signups for the concert and dance. This action was necessary even after an additional 75 tickets, made possible by arrangements for an extra dancing room, had been sold. Tickets now held by men unable to attend and redeemed by them will be sold until the waiting list is exhausted.

The original plan of the management was to sell only 200 signups. This number was raised to 300, and a second cut in the cast of the Tech (Wednesday, February 1, 1920) was made. The 350th signup of the evening will be announced as a compromise, but no further signups are expected to be sold until the evening of the concert. Signups held by anyone not present at the concert will be returned to the waiting list on Wednesday, February 6, and may be taken at the box office.

The financial arrangements for the concert have been made. The supper will be held in the Boston College auditorium, and the dancing in the Westcott gymnasium. The entire proceeds of the event, including the sales of signups, will be turned over to the Combined Musical Clubs.

The combined clubs now have 373 signups, against an original plan for 300. A new signup of 150 will be held twice a week, beginning Wednesday, February 6, and every Tuesday thereafter until the evening of the concert, unless otherwise announced.
