Give Concert This Evening
At the Institute

The following concert was held in the Institute gymnasium last Friday evening. The program consisted of several songs, instrumental numbers, and a few spoken words. The audience was enthusiastic, and showed great appreciation for the performers. The concert was well-planned and executed, and was a great success. The Institute is proud to have such talented students, and looks forward to future concerts.

Summary
This week's edition of the official news organ of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 'The Tech,' contains information about the basketball game between MIT and Harvard, which was postponed due to inclement weather. The game has been rescheduled for February 27. The Tech also reports on the upcoming concert-dance at Wellesley College, which will feature the MIT Orchestra. The basketball game between MIT and Harvard is expected to be a close match, with both teams having strong players. The concert-dance at Wellesley College is expected to be a great event, with the MIT Orchestra providing music for the evening.

New Voo Doo Appears: 'Clothing in Blue and Gold'

The fourth issue of the season's Voo Doo was put out in this week's bulky last Wednesday and ordered at an unrecorded address. As number of copies for this issue brought to the official news organ up to the total of 399 being sold for Wellesley.
The cover design which has attracted a large amount of comment is that of the work of Teodorico Quiros.
While this issue had no particular feature, it was expected to come through with none of the Harvard and Remington, Coach Remington says in regard to the issue, "I think that this is the best team that we have ever produced and I am sure we will win." After several postponements, the weather was suitable for trials last Monday and the fourth position was finally decided for the Freshman and Varsity teams.

HARVARD CUBS POSTPONE MEET

The Harvard freshmen again postponed the meet scheduled for the afternoon of the Harvard find. Included in the postponed list were the 8.00-9.00 Tech team runs at B. T. and the 9.00-4.00 Tech team runs. Demarest field has been selected for the first tryout and for this reason the men selected will be given the opportunity of being chosen from the ten selected.

Order for Walker Ball Out Next Week

Formal Affair in Memorial Building February 17 Will Be Limited to One Hundred and Fifty Couples
EXCELLENT MUSIC OBTAINED

Plaid arrangements have been completed for the Walker Ball, which was postponed to Tuesday, February 17, at 8:00 o'clock. The committee in charge has obtained good music and has designed attractive engraved programs to be given to the guests. The programs will be distributed at the door, and will contain a list of the guests who are attending.

The program will include a variety of music, including classical and popular pieces, as well as a few selections arranged specifically for the occasion. The music will be performed by the Institute orchestra, which has been rehearsing for several weeks in preparation for the ball.

The Institute orchestra has been selected for the ball, and will consist of a string section, a woodwind section, and a percussion section. The string section will be led by the conductor, and will consist of a full string orchestra. The woodwind section will be led by the woodwind director, and will consist of a full woodwind quartet. The percussion section will be led by the percussion director, and will consist of a full percussion ensemble.

The program will begin with a welcome address by the president of the Institute, who will introduce the guests and briefly discuss the history and traditions of the Institute. The program will then proceed with several musical numbers, including a dance selection arranged specifically for the occasion.

The dance will conclude with a grand finale, which will feature a selection arranged specifically for the occasion. The dance will then adjourn to the buffet hall, where refreshments will be served. The guests will then have the opportunity to mingle and dance to the music provided by the Institute orchestra.
