SNOW HAVEN OFFERS TWENTY SCHOLARSHIPS

Selection of Fellows Made By Jury of University Professors Including Drs. Harvard and Talbot of Lowell May Study Under Arrenhius

The travelling fellowships establish ed by the American-Swedish Foundation of New York City propose to make twenty scholarships to Swedish students to study in this country. Each fellowship will be worth $1000 and will be granted for one year's study. The number and distribution of the fellowships will be determined by the American-Swedish Foundation in consultation with the Swedish government. The selection of the fellows will be made by a jury of University Professors including Drs. Harvard and Talbot of Lowell in May. The fellows will be selected on the basis of their ability and the needs of their home country. The program is designed to promote scientific and cultural exchange between the United States and Sweden.
