NEW T. C. A. OFFICIALS TO BE ELECTED ON MARCH 31
 Nominations Must Be Filed With the Secretary

The annual elections of the officers of the T. C. A. are to be held March 31. Nominations, signed by at least five members, are to be in the hands of the Secretary by noon of March 27. Article IV, section 1, of the constitution says 'the officers of the association shall be president, vice-president, and treasurer, to be elected by ballot not later than April 1 of each year, the date to be determined by the executive and announced at least two weeks in advance.' Section 5 says, "Nominations shall be made in writing and signed by at least five members, and filled with the secretary by noon of the fourth day preceding the elections."

Because of increased activity two new departments have been created, that of church relations, and that of freshmen advisors. Nominations have been made placing J. S. Raffety '22 and A. W. Norton '21, respectively in charge as directors of these divisions.

INSTITUTE BOXERS JOURNEY TO YALE
TEAM IN PERFECT FORM

The Institute Boxing team will be in the pink of condition when they match mitts with the Yale scrappers tomorrow night in New Haven. They have been training regularly under Willie Corbett '21, Coach "Nap" Boutelier, and his brother Jack who was light weight champion of the Navy. With Koch who was sick, and Egil Christensen, back in the game, Captain Addicks is confident that the meet will be in no wise one-sided.

The Technology entries will be the same as were planned for the Penn meet, which was called off because of travel delays. The postponed Penn meet will be run off during the vacation, when the team will take a three day trip, meeting the U. of P. and Penn State teams.

The Yale entries were determined in a recent elimination contest and include much of the cream of intercollegiate boxing. E. P. Eagan, captain of the Blue team, is amateur heavyweight champion of the country and amateur middleweight champion of the world. However, the Cardinal and Gray entries also represent considerable class and the evening gives promise of being fairly strenuous.

The entries: for Technology, 115 pound class, T. H. Barnard; 125 pound class, Captain A. D. Addicks; 135 pound class, F. C. Paul; 145 pound class, Egil Christensen; 158 pound class, F. C. Koch; 175 pound class, T. W. Proctor.

jury of University professors and technical experts appointed by the Foundation and on this jury are William Hovgaard, Professor of Naval Architecture, Technology; C. H. Marvin, Chief of the Weather Bureau, U. S. Department of Agriculture, J. W. Toumey, Dean of the School of Forestry at Yale, H. P. Talbot, Chief of the Department of Chemistry, Technology; A. E. Kennelly, Chief of the Department of Electrical Engineering at Harvard; William Campbell of the Department of Metallurgy, Columbia University; W. W. Lawrence, Professor of English at Columbia University, and Henry Goddard Leach, Secretary of the Foundation.

Successful candidates will be notified about May 1st and are expected to sail from New York in early summer, so that they may have several weeks before the opening of the Universities, to travel about in the countries to which they are appointed, familiarizing themselves with the language and life of the people.

Under the Fellowships (1919-20) the following ten American students are now studying in Sweden.

Chemistry and Physics: Rowland V. Hagen, Northwestern University; Ralph M. Hixon, Iowa State College; Chester C. Stewart, Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Harry W. Titus, University of Wyoming.

Hydro-electro Engineering: Robert C. Sessions, Worcester Polytechnic Institute; Clarence N. Ostergren, Sheffield Scientific School.

Forestry: William S. Moir, Yale School of Forestry; Henry M. Meloney, New York State School of Forestry at Syracuse University.

Metallurgy: Rudolph E. Zetterstrand, Sheffield Scientific School; Fred E. Steinbach, University of Michigan.

SPIKES

Jim Braden, Yale's star punter, has left college to go into business. Braden's toe was responsible for most of the Eli points last fall and the Blue is dealt quite a blow by his decision.

Columbia's water polo team won the intercollegiate championship from Princeton at the Tiger Natatorium last week. Each team had previously won five matches.

Manager Kurzman is completing next year's Tex Soccer team schedule. Games with Harvard and Worcester have already been arranged while dates with Springfield Y. M. C. A., Dartmouth and Andover are pending.
