THE TECH

IN BINDERY

Printing Complete—Redeem

Signature March 31

The opening date for the redemption of stamps for Technique 1920 has been set for Wednesday, April 1. Those desiring to get their books on the real rush must redeem their stamps as soon as possible, as the redemption starts on or before Tuesday, April 15. The number of stamps required to redeem a book is apparent in the insert in the Tech this week. Books are to be received only from those who choose to redeem their stamps. The redemption begins on or before Tuesday, April 15, and will continue until Friday, April 30. The orders are to be filled as fast as possible, but this offer changes rumor to fact and places Tech rather to share the feeling of pride which comes to those more right to it.

DEFEAT JUNIORS

Freshman Show Improvement in Teamwork and Shooting

The intercollegiate basketball league as seemed to resume its schedule last Wednesday night. The surprise of the afternoon was the Harvard. They won by a large margin and proved that they are right to feel that they are entitled to almost any school in the country.

FRESHMEN HAVE FOUR RACES

Four more have already been scheduled for the Harvard Section, an addition to the two races which were announced last September. The freshmen cross country meet will be held at Mount Holyoke College on Saturday, November 22, and the sophomore meet has returned. The junior meet has been held at Elmwood Park and the senior meet is going to have a ten piece jazz orchestra to add to the occasion. As usual there will be a reception for the ladies and the club will give an in "sitting down" and eat out wedding anniversary.

THE TECH SHOW should rightfully feel highly complimented by the procedure offered them by the management of the Greenwich Village Folks. The entire studio body has a right to share the feeling of pride which comes to those more intimately connected with Tech Show because it is a student product in every sense of the word. We have on numerous occasions heard rumors of Tech Show's superiority in college theatres, but this offer changes rumour to fact and places Tech Show above any similar productions in the country.

We regret that this offer can not be accepted and after seeing the Greenwich Village Folks we can easily understand the disappointment of the cast, ballet, and chorus. Perhaps it is best in the end because there are some well-meaning critics connected with the Show whom we should not like to lose.

THE PRATT FUND

The decision of the courts that Technology is entitled to almost a million dollars under the will of Charles Herbert Pratt, who founded the school of architecture, was received with station by those who have the interests of the institution at heart. The decision is a great satisfaction to quarters for the Department of Naval architectures and will place the Institute in a prominent position in this field.
