THRILLING RACES
MARK SPRING MEET

The first annual spring meet of the New York Athletic Club, which was held at the Polo Grounds on Thursday, April 17, 1920, was a great success. The meet was sponsored by the New York Athletic Club and was attended by a large number of spectators. The weather was perfect, and the track was in excellent condition.

The meet featured a variety of events, including the 100-yard dash, the 200-yard dash, the 400-yard dash, the 800-yard run, the 1500-yard run, the 5000-yard run, the high jump, the long jump, the triple jump, the shot put, the hammer throw, the discus throw, and the mile run.

Among the top performers were: Bill McWigg 72, who won the mile run; Bob Jordan 72, who won the 100-yard dash; and Bill McWigg 72, who won the 200-yard dash.

The meet concluded with a speech by W. L. Emmet, who spoke about the importance of physical fitness and the benefits of athletics.

The New York Athletic Club would like to thank all the participants, spectators, and volunteers for making this year's meet a success. We look forward to next year's meet and hope to see you all there.
