Tri-Camp Men for Business

The Graduate School of Business Administration of Harvard University offers a two-year course to college graduates. The course is designed to give a broad fundamental training for business college to work in cooperation with special fields in which the student is most interested.

College men, looking to business as a career, feel the lack of adequate preparation which enables them to deal effectively either with general business problems or with the problems in their own special fields. The Harvard Business School aims to fill this gap.

Special emphasis is placed upon the application of business theory to actual business problems. For this purpose the "problems method" of instruction is used. The business textbooks afford an excellent laboratory.

Completion of the two-year course leads to the degree of Master of Business Administration.
