JUNIOR WEEK 1921

The memories of Junior Week are still with us, and as it is impossible that a case occurs where they are pleasant, we venture to speak of the plans for the future.

The closing of the Walker Library by the Walker Memorial Committee is to be regretted because, as in all cases of this sort, the innocent must suffer with the guilty. However, the repeated thoughtlessness, carelessness, or dishonesty, which resulted in the loss of 169 books, shows the need for better supervision, and it is essential to preserve what was the nucleus of the library. The Committee's action has already resulted in the return of many of the books. When the others come, the library will open. Until then everyone must be inconvenience by the negligence of a few.
