Technology's War Record

The official history of Technology and her sons in the recent war. The official history of the Institute during the war. An authentic account of the auxiliary organizations formed among the Undergraduates and Alumni.

Portraits and biographies of the Tech men who gave their lives. The story of the European campaign written by Tech men who were there.

Accounts of the great administrative and industrial enterprises in which prominent alumni were engaged in the United States.

Authentic service records of over 5000 Tech men enlisted and commissioned in the armies and navies of the United States and her Allies.

Records of many other Tech men who performed valuable work in a civilian capacity.

In addition to portraits the book is illustrated with 150 half-tones, made up of official pictures taken at the Institute, photographs taken by Tech men on the battle-front, and official United States Army and Navy photographs illustrating places where Tech men fought.

The edition is now almost completely subscribed to, and this will probably be the last opportunity for undergraduates to obtain copies.

Those who subscribe now will obtain books; those who delay may be disappointed.

Fill out this coupon and send it at once to the War Record Office, Room 3-210.

MENORAH SOCIETY BANQUET TOMORROW WILL BE INFORMAL

Final arrangements for the Menorah Society banquet, which will close the activities of the organization for the year, have been completed. The affair will be held on the evening of May 12 at 6.30 o'clock in the faculty dining room, tickets for which selling for $1.50 may be had from any of the officers.

The speakers of the evening will be Dr. S. Lowenstein, major in the American Red Cross, Charles Matinband, field director of the Inter-collegiate Menorah Society, and Dean Burton. The dinner is to be entirely informal and the officers promise an interspersing of the talks with music. The management requests that as many members as possible should attend the dinner as it is the last gathering of the society this year.

At a meeting in room 10-275 at 5 o'clock last Friday, officers of the Menorah Society for the next fiscal year were elected. L. P. Siff '22 was chosen president of the society. Siff was secretary of the organization this year. The next vice-president will be F. J. Starr '22. Jerome Meier '22 was reelected treasurer and Milton Oransky '23 was chosen as secretary.

The men picked for the Executive Committee are Milton Manshell '22, S. M. Seegal '22 and W. L. Merzbach '23. Seegal won the chairmanship from Manshell by one vote. The latter served on the committee this season.

POOR RESPONSE CAUSES POSTPONEMENT OF CLASS DINNER

On account of the fact that about 30 were unable to attend, the reunion dinner of the Class of 1900 has been postponed. The gathering was to have been held last Friday evening in Walker Memorial but only six men could have been present. The dinner, however, will take place Tuesday, May 25, and Ingersoll Bowditch '00, who is the class secretary, is trying to get notices to the Alumni in time.

At the reunion one of the speakers will show lantern slides of work done in Syria. Further details will not be perfected until later.

COMMITTEE SAYS 'NO' TO CAPS AND GOWNS

the gallery. Admission charges for the concert have been fixed at $1.25.

Abandon Traditional Customs

Friday the eleventh is also the day of the graduation exercises. Many particulars in the program for these ceremonies still await the action of the committee. On the question of dress for the occasion, the committee-men are unanimous that caps and gowns will not be worn. The grounds for this ruling have not been announced.

Senior week will be introduced by the picnic at Nantasket on Tuesday, June 8. Wednesday will be devoted to the Senior banquet at the Boston City Club. The time set for the banquet is 5 o'clock, and the price $3.00 per plate.

Tickets Bound in Booklet

Music for the Senior dance Friday evening Senior week will be supplied by Reisman's orchestra. Dancing will begin at 8 o'clock and continue until 1. Tickets will sell at $3.00.

To facilitate the handling of tickets for all the events of the week, the committee has devised a ticket book. Coupons in this book will represent admission fees to the picnic, banquet, dance, and concert. Separate tickets to Pops concert will be printed for the use of men outside the class of 1920, to whom the other functions of Senior week are not open. The coupon books will be placed on sale in the main lobby next Friday immediately after the Senior mass meeting.

Will Meet Every Friday

In view of the fact that the work of the committee is nearly completed, it will discontinue the Tuesday meetings which it has been holding, meeting hereafter only on Fridays. These meetings will be held in room 10-250 at 5 o'clock.

A report made at the meeting of last Friday by the sub-committee on a budget has not been made public.
