SENIORS AT MASS MEETING TODAY

Plans for Coming Class Day Even will Be Disclosed by Organization of the Various Committees

TICKETS IN BOOKLET FORM

A mass meeting of the entire senior class at 1 o'clock in 10-250 has been ordered to acquaint the members with the plans of the coming events at Class Day by means of short talks from the committee chairmen. The tickets in course form and containing admission slips admitting the bearer to all scheduled activities, will be sold after the meeting. About 1000 tickets have been ordered, and all members of the class present at the meeting will be allotted one ticket, with the idea of promoting interest in every man in the Class of 1920.

Order Printed Matter

At the last meeting of the board the decision was made to order the programs and invitations was ordered and an order placed for 700 tickets to be delivered to 10-275 for the Pops Concert to enable the members of the Class of 1920 to know which tickets they will receive when the other events are not open. At this event the seniors and alumns will be seated at the front of the room, and the juniors at the rear of the room and the graduating class will be seated in the order of their grades.

The committee on Class Day will meet at 2 o'clock, room 308, Walker Memorial on Thursday afternoon, but any members of the class not on Pops will be erroneously announced, as if present.

TECHNIQUE BEGINS COMPETITION SOON

Work to Progress During Summer—Successful Men Get Positions on Business Staff of Technique 1923

REGIONAL PREFERENCE MONDAY

The Technique business competition opens Monday at 3 o'clock in the Technique Office, under the auspices of the Technique Book Corporation. The competition is open to all students who desire to test their qualifications for business positions. The object of the competition is to determine the most capable student in the class in business work, and to provide the class with competent business men.

The competition is open to men only, and is divided into four sections: sales, service, accounting, and stenography. The competition will be held in the Technique Office, 10-275 at 5 o'clock on Monday. Entries will be accepted on a first come, first served basis, and no entries will be accepted after 4 o'clock.

COMPETITION STARTED

Events Will Be Disclosed by Program

Competitions Started

Events will be disclosed by program. The object of the competition is to determine the most capable student in the class in business work, and to provide the class with competent business men.

The competition is open to men only, and is divided into four sections: sales, service, accounting, and stenography. The competition will be held in the Technique Office, 10-275 at 5 o'clock on Monday. Entries will be accepted on a first come, first served basis, and no entries will be accepted after 4 o'clock.

SANFORD AND PINDLER PICKED FOR

"Without attempting any of this," said the speaker, "I will tell you how we did it, and I am sure you will see the practicability of what we did."

"It is not necessary," he went on, "for us to meet at the same time, and in the same place, the contract would be closed, and that is how we did it."

After the speaker had finished, the key man went off to his desk, and the other man returned to his chair. The signatures were on the Pindler Sanford and Pinders for the competition.

COUNCILL JORDGES JUDGEMENT

The presence of the record of the yearbook, 1924, and the record of the yearbook, 1925, was requested by the speaker, who then proceeded to discuss the situation. The presence of the record of the yearbook, 1924, and the record of the yearbook, 1925, was requested by the speaker, who then proceeded to discuss the situation.

"The subject under discussion was the presence of the record of the yearbook, 1924, and the record of the yearbook, 1925, was requested by the speaker, who then proceeded to discuss the situation."

The subject under discussion was the presence of the record of the yearbook, 1924, and the record of the yearbook, 1925, was requested by the speaker, who then proceeded to discuss the situation.

The subject under discussion was the presence of the record of the yearbook, 1924, and the record of the yearbook, 1925, was requested by the speaker, who then proceeded to discuss the situation.

EXAMINATIONS HELD EARLIER

By vote of the Faculty, the last examinations were held on Tuesday, May 20, 1920. The examination period will be held at 8:30 A.M. on Tuesday, June 4, 1920.

WALKER-HUFFS, REGULAR

EXAMINATIONS HELD EARLIER

By vote of the Faculty, the last examinations were held on Tuesday, May 20, 1920. The examination period will be held at 8:30 A.M. on Tuesday, June 4, 1920.

WALKER-HUFFS, REGULAR

EXAMINATIONS HELD EARLIER

By vote of the Faculty, the last examinations were held on Tuesday, May 20, 1920. The examination period will be held at 8:30 A.M. on Tuesday, June 4, 1920.