third and two fourth places. This performance netted 33 points—not too large a total, but still enough to win by a margin of three.

Ted Bossert brought the Institute its first five counters when he waded to a victory in the century in a time of 10 4-5 seconds. Carter of Brown, and McWhorter and Coddling of Williams followed in the order named. The crowd was well bunched at the tape, and the judges had some trouble picking the men.

MacMahon Second in Two-Mile

The furlong was the best race of the day from the standpoint of the Technology fan. Jack Poole and Jim Downey finished first and second, and were yards ahead of the rest of the field at the line. Both boys showed rare form, and apparently were little bothered by the water.

The two other Institute firsts were garnered by Jack Kellar, who threw the discuss 122 feet, 1 7-8 inches, and George Dandrow, who heaved the 16-pound hammer 143 feet, 1 1/2 inches. This break's Dandrow's own M. I. T. A. A. mark, which he made in the spring meet.

The two-mile race was a thriller. As was predicted, Gordon Nightingale, the New Hampshire State flyer, did not enter this event, but contented himself with a win in the mile. In the double distance the race was a fight all the way between our own Bill MacMahon and Brown of Williams. Billy led all the way until the end of the last lap, when Brown edged past and finished a few yards in the lead. Crofts, another Williams
