SIX ATHLETES LEAVE FOR I. C. I. A. A. A. MEET

Technology's Representatives Arrive in Philadelphia for Last Year's Meet—For Trials—Will Hold Finals To Complete This Year's Meet

DANDROW LIKELY WINNER

Technology's representatives who are to compete in the I. C. I. A. A. A. national track meet, which will be held in Philadelphia today in the Memorial hall, include in the field which was repeated in the preliminaries. Finals will be run tomorrow. Among the likely contenders are Penn, Princeton, Yale and Tech. The meet will start at 2 p.m. through the season indicate that three from Penn are the best in the track meet, and the second event is likely to be Dandrow, who has been expected to win in the track meet of the meet. He has just announced his return from Philadelphia, and it is believed that he is in the best shape for the meet. Dandrow is rated as slightly better than the others, but he is by no means the strongest of the contenders. His recent time in the 100-yard dash was 10.5 seconds, and he is expected to make a good showing in the meet. Freshman Tommy Levet, who represented the Tech team in the meet last year, will also be expected to do well in the meet. He has turned in some good performances, and is expected to be a strong contender in the meet.

1923 WINS AGAIN

Freshman Tennis Team Defeats Lynn on Home Courts

Technology's freshman tennis team whitewashed the Lynn English High School team on the Tech courts Wednesday afternoon, taking three singles and two doubles matches from the visitors. All of the Corinthians' first singles were won in straight sets, and the only set the opponents of the Cornellians won was played by them in the second set.

The closest match of the day was played between Banta, of the Tech, and Brown of Lynn. Banta won the first set handily, 6-3, but at the beginning of the second set the match was tied, 1-1. Brown served and Banta returned, and the match continued for a while. Banta, however, won the second set, 6-2, and the match was won by the Corinthians.

Freshman team was expected to win the Lynn court easily, but the match was close. The Corinthians won Unable to Aricae the Institute Athletic Union,哲学, and arrive in Philadelphia Tuesday evening, and will close successful season with the National Intercollegiate meet.

COACHES

E. F. Giguillette "22 Picked to Run Track Team

E. F. Giguillette "22, of Coburn, has been chosen as track manager for next year's team. He will handle the teams in the meet in the hands of Alder. Cornell did not have its usual coach last year, but he managed to take the cup away from Phila

PLANNING FOR CORPORATION

Officers for Next Year Meet to Award 100 Percent Membership

Corporation XV will start year with a new system of activities as the newly elected officers met to discuss notions of adopting more progressive measures that have been previously planned. Plans for the coming year were discussed and committees appointed to supervise the work of the organization.

L. W. Connell, president, asked the officers to attend the meeting and nothing could be done in the year. The other members of the official staff present were J. W. Benedict '21, treasurer; W. B. Williams, secretary, and R. A. Thrush, director of the executive committee. W. W. Pollock and A. W. Snow, and Junior director of the executive committee, T. W. Alder and D. D. Spier.

TENNIS TEAM COMPETES IN NATIONAL INTERCOLLEGiates

Will Close Successful Season with National Championship

The varsity tennis team, consisting of Capt. Broome, Cowdell, McLean, and Westhead, will compete in the National Intercollegiate tennis event at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, this fall. The team will consist of the members of the varsity team, who have been selected for the meet, as follows: J. B. Nason, Allen Isaacson, E. C. champagne, and J. G. Allen.

DOMINO TENNIS IS SLOW

On account of the bad weather of the last week, the domino tennis tournament has not progressed very much. The tournament was opened last week and will be played off on the tennis courts of the campus. The domino tennis tournament will be held at the end of the next week. The winner will be the man who can play domino tennis the longest. The winner will be announced at the end of the next week.