FRANK KANAL, AR. Pointed Army Coach

(Note continued from page 1)

The coaching staff which will precede the United States Army abroad, Coach Kanal is certainly up to date in training. There will be some men in the group who have had some experience of Army training, but not the majority. By the time that the team is ready for the Spring training course, the field should be in good condition. The Army decked out two large Union flags, this year, and one of the south faced flag was first carried by a member of the Harvard team, who was on the wrestling team.

Frank Harney's appointment as coach of the Olympic contingent showing the boys in which occasion meets with the approval of most sport fan. Frank's system of raising is one that calls for more and varied effort by the coach than by the other, and the results are recorded at the Institute in spirit of utilizing conditions relatively to win.

G. H. Belliot Jr., '22 elected captain of the winning team for the President's prize for the scholarship for the year 1920, A. A. L. Champion from the 121 pound class. At the intercollegiate at Simmonsville last year he was now near in his class and was defeated only the closer kind of competition.

During the season, Mr. Healy went to Chicago field where he won on the wrestling team.

Mr. James Fitzgerald was chief of the boxing team in River Meet, in addition to the team there were present Nip Bohle, Willi Crotchet, Larry Crotchet, scoring south at Harvard, Mr. Taunt, Mr. Buckwell, and Dr. Bao. For next season were examined, and Dr. Bao have spoken about the National Intercollegiate Boxing Association.

After Addicks '23 was re-elected captain of the team, and Downend '23 was elected manager. Announcement is that the summer classes will be held for three weeks, and that the first will start July 1. Boston will be held during the summer and will instruct the men. The prices will be

Library remains closed

Quite a number of books have been received in the Library, but as there do not comprise a large percentage of the 350 missing books has been decided to keep the room closed for some time longer. Mrs. King insists that books can be returned in her table any time and no questions will be asked.

THE CIGARETTE
YOU have been looking for.

A Wonderful Blend that will
Please You for 20c

GINA CIGARS.