CANDIDATES FOR TECH SHOW 1931 ASSEMBLE AT SMOKER

(Continued from page 3)

old Verone, a young man afraid of women, to dress up girls. The problem is to use the type of middle-aged man who likes to have chorus girls falling all over him. His wife, Lulu notes, is a very firm but quite young character. Her product, Chrysanthemum, has turned the comedy relief, an extremely difficult type.

Exploring New Stage Details

Monroe L. E. Crowe Jr., of the stage department explained the details of the new system to be used in the east competition. Individual appointments would be made and the men will try out without the usual auditions. Competitions for the chorus and stage department will be started immediately. Tryouts for the chorus will follow.

The show officials announced that they will be at the smoke office to give any information desired. The show will begin in earnest earlier than usual this year and therefore it is necessary to get an early start.

A Call was made to welcome all comers and Lulu Fox was a close second. Monroe, Joseph Nie and Gros Alan topped off the evening's entertainment.

STONE & WEBSTER

Incorporated

DEIGN steam power stations, hydro-electric de-velopments, steam and gas engines, city and indus-trial power, water and chemical plants, indus-trial plants, ware-houses and buildings.

CONSTRUCT either from their own designs or from designs of other engineers or architects.

MANAGE public utility and industrial companies.

REPORT on going concerns, proposed extensions and new projects.

FINANCE industrial and public utility properties and meet banking business.

BOSTON

Chicago

New York

WALNUT LUNCH CO.

Nearest Lunchroom Room

AT 78 MASSACHUSETTS AVE.