Cross-Country Team Closes Successful Season

Dress Up Time

You can wear your dress shoes and be perfectly at ease if they are correct. A correct and comfortable selection depends on the little details—the accessories being even more important than the shoes themselves. The collar, the tie, the studs—all these have to be selected with the utmost care.

We're always pleased to advise you in the selection of these details. We have always a joy to buy, and never buy only your wishes to the letter and at a price that is well within reach.

If you are ever up against that question—what to wear?—we will be glad to see you advised. Your order to do business.
