Mr. Fox was braging one day about the large number of her cubs.

"How many cubs do you bring into the world at one time?" she asked the LIONESS. "Only ONE," replied the Lioness—"but it's a LION."

MURAD COST 20 CENTS FOR A BOX OF 10—BUT THEY'RE MURADS!

MURADS would be lowered priced if we left out all or part of the 100% Turkish tobaccos of the purest and best varieties grown—or if we substituted inferior grades of Turkish tobacco.

But they wouldn't be MURADS—they'd only be Foxes.

"Judge for yourself—!"

MUSICAL CLUBS TO VISIT LARGE CITIES

(Continued from page 1)

of various people of the city, which will add greatly to the general good tone.

To Visit Capital:

Washington comes on the following day, Thursday, December 30. There are only three of the nine members of the Institute who are free to travel and to pursue the concert, but also the president of Wellesley College, Miss Mabel T. Boardman, secretary of the American Red Cross and one of the trustees of the Institute of Technology. She was associated with the late Prof. MacLaurin during the war, and attended the Institute of Technology. She was given an invitation to be a patron.

The Club enjoys in one of these cities to turn out in full force, and on these occasions the Musical Clubs office, 502 Walker Memorial.

BURNS GIVES INSTRUCTION TO PROSPECTIVE NATIVE-TALKERS

Twenty-three fresmen have in their names as candidates for the first wrestling team, while twenty-six others have in their names as candidates for the second team, with the result that the team will be composed of all the members of the entire crew. The elections will be decided by the members of the crew, and the results will be announced at a later date.

Miss F. J. Burns gives in instruction to prospective native-talkers, to be given on Tuesday, November 23, at the University of Washington. Miss Burns is a member of the University of Washington's own wrestling team, and is one of the best known native-talkers in the country. She will be assisted by the newly elected native-talkers, and the results will be announced at a later date.