SOPHOMORE BANQUET
TICKETS SOLD TODAY

Tuscaloosa Beauties of Keith Williams and the 500 Men Will Present—Numerals Awarded

INTRODUCES "29 VICTORY SONG"

The limit time on the tickets and Sophomores Banquet, which is scheduled for the last moment in the evening, February 14.

The program will begin at 6 o'clock. The band, of course, will be present.

The program will be of great strength this season as. P. N. H. Brown, T. H. Gill, and W. H. Johnson are among the candidates that are now being considered.

(Continued on Page 4)

RADIO SHOWS

The following programs will be presented this week:

- "Train to a Good Time." The Columbia University Special Orchestra will appear on this program, with S. R. Anderson. The program will be transmitted live from Columbia University, and broadcast from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. on Sunday.

- "Memorial Day Program." This program will feature music and comments in honor of those who served in the armed forces. It will be transmitted live from the National Memorial in Washington, D.C., and broadcast from 11:00 to 12:00 p.m. on Monday.

- "Columbia Student Music Festival." This program will feature music by Columbia University students, as well as contributions from the Columbia University Orchestra. It will be transmitted live from the Columbia University Music Hall, and broadcast from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m. on Thursday.

- "Columbia University Dramatic Festival." This program will feature productions by the Columbia University Drama Department, as well as contributions from the Columbia University Theatre. It will be transmitted live from the Columbia University Theatre, and broadcast from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m. on Tuesday.

(Continued on Page 4)