10 SPECIAL STUDENTS HER

Miss E. Z. Harrison, of the second term of 1920, has managed to attract all the attention of the 65 men for whom she was responsible and to study all the mistakes of last term. At the request of the others of the course, she has decided to give up her position, and the others were requested by the dean to give her a yearly appreciation award. The term was to have ended July 1, but she has decided to extend it to the fourth of July, the day of the fourth of July, the day

When You're All Dressed Up...

You can feel perfectly at ease if your outfit is correct. And correctness depends on such details as the fit and style of the collar, the cut and texture of the tie and shirt.

You should be sure that you give the opportunity of filling your dress
