CLOSE HOCKEY SEASON

WITH B. C. GAME FRIDAY

Both Teams Anxious to Wind Up Series and Five Game Idea Is Abandoned—Heights—Best Player Badly Injured

WINNER TAKES ARENA MANAGEMENT CUP

The Institute hockey season will come to a close Friday night with the final game of the Boston College Tour, which is to be played in the Arena. It was originally planned to give the game on Thursday night, but circumstances beyond the control of the Management Committee caused it to be postponed one day.

GETTING READY FOR SENIOR CLASS DAY

WILL SELL SIGNUPS FOR JUNIOR PROM TODAY

Appoint Men to Manage Elections for Class Day Committee—Expect to Mail Ballots Next Monday

CONFERENCE AT BROOKLINE

Musical Clubs to Play at Whitney Hall

HOOVER AND SUZALLA NOT CONSIDERED FOR PRESIDENCY

Other Information Not Forbearing in Attempt of TECH to Lift Veil of Secrecy

PUBLICITY DISTASTEFUL’ SAYS HUMPHREYS

Everett M. Rusk said that while he could not at once definitely specify the problem, and that it “is very desirable to select a man as soon as possible.”

EXCEED QUOTA

Technology Raises $2,200 for Hoover Fund

The Institute not only secured the quota set for the Hoover fund but surpassed it by $200. Previous reports had indicated that the committee would have any name to submit at that time.

MANN: SOME TICKETS LEFT

Those freshmen who have not yet paid to get into the 900 dance tomorrow evening in Memorial Hall will receive full cooperation.

HOLD HOUSE-PARTIES

Fraternal Plan Activities For Junior Week

The plans of the fraternities for Junior Week center around the house-party, which is to come to be part of the Junior Week program here. The house-parties will be given by parties ranging from 10 couples to in some cases as many as 80 couples.

CONDITION IMPROVING

Dr. George E. Long, who visited Bert Lowe’s hospital Wednesday night, is reported by the doctors of the hospital as being condition improving.

CALENDAR

Wednesday, February 23

- Durham, N. H., Ballet, 8:00 p.m., South Memorial.
- College Night, 8:00 p.m., North Memorial.
- College Night, 8:00 p.m., West Memorial.
- College Night, 8:00 p.m., Junior Prom, 9:00 p.m., West Memorial.
- College Night, 8:00 p.m., Freshman Formal, 9:00 p.m., South Memorial.

Public Information

The information in this section is for public information and is not intended for publication in the Tech.