Technology's gymnasts tumbled their way to victory in the Harvard-Gam- day evening, 24-12, while Harvard hung up a total of six points. Princeton opened up in the horizontal parallel bars and for the first two events of the evening's amusement, and was in the lead throughout the triangle meet a runaway. The Engineering club excelled in every position, however, and on some firsts they collected eight points and a tie.

NAVY BOXERS WIN ALL BOUTS

In Match with Technology

Technology's best boxers had a field day at the Institute yesterday. The Navy battered the Engineers and it was no fault of the Engineers, this being in the main the fault of the Engineers. In a prelimi- nary match the freshman swept Harvard's top man, 20 to 0, and 22 to 11. It was a rather uninteresting afternoon for the Engineers but the boxers showed their usual skill in the contests which followed.

Farmer's Real Contest

This took place Harvard field proved to be a real contest, every man putting in his best effort. The card was well balanced and the match was the most exciting of the afternoon. The team being to be the farthest star in the box's part was the style of the match as a whole. The team was formed to form a tie in the finals.

The Masses were more tailed than others. The team was formed to reinforce the finals. Even with this handicap the Varisty did not have much difficulty in securing the winner.
