RIFLE TEAM WINS

George D. W. Reynolds, a member of the Harvard University rifle team, won first place in the 25-yard freehand shooting division of the New England Rifle Meet held recently. Reynolds scored 293 out of a possible 300, while the second place winner scored 290. The meet was held in Manchester, New Hampshire, and was sponsored by the New England Rifle Association.

Tennis Courts Ready Soon

The new tennis courts at Harvard have been completed and are ready for use. The courts are located near the Tennis Pavilion, and are expected to be a popular destination for students and faculty.

GRADUATES ELIGIBLE FOR ARMY EXAMINATION

The Army Board has announced that all graduates of Harvard University are eligible to take examinations for second lieutenant rank. The examinations will be held in April. Interested candidates should contact the Army Board for further information.

AERO SOCIETY ACTIVITY

The Aero Society of Harvard University has scheduled a number of events for the coming months. The society will hold a meeting to discuss the future of aviation, followed by a flight over the Boston area. The society will also hold a film screening and a lecture on the history of aviation.

ENGLISH TOP COATS

In a variety of English Twed mixtures, Grays and browns in the much favored herring-bone patterns. Such coats are as worn by men who attain individuality in dress. Prices from $50.

Sport Suits

Read Sport Suits with knickers and long trousers offer a combination that can be worn for eating and formal occasions. We are Sport Specialists—our models are distinctive—essentially different from those offered by ordinary dealers.

English Top Coats

In a variety of English Tweed mixtures, Grays and browns in the much favored herring-bone patterns. Such coats are as worn by men who attain individuality in dress. Prices from $50.

Sport Suits

Read Sport Suits with knickers and long trousers offer a combination that can be worn for eating and formal occasions. We are Sport Specialists—our models are distinctive—essentially different from those offered by ordinary dealers.

.replytext