THOSE who know Sherwood Eddy are in high anticipation of his advent. He is a man possessing unusual force the power to impress and engage them with his energy. He can put his ideas into the minds of others with such peculiar and peculiar fascination that there are few who escape his influence. He is a fascinating speaker for he is a part of all that he has met in a life of wide experience. With Ulises he may truly say, "Men, I have seen and known, countries, states, empires, kings, public meetings.

There are men who would face machine guns with heroic stoicism, and self-control, but who flee from preachers as from a plague. For the most part these men are true as steel and straight as a right line, but the mention of religion sets them aside.

Eddy makes his most poignant appeal. He grips the raw truth in their spirits and commands their admiration for he is true to the point of danger; transparent, without an appearance of artifice, and preaching to fanatics of another faith are not recommended any life insurance companies as pastimes. He understands the human heart and he speaks straight. And the men who shy at T. C. A. posters will do themselves a wrong if they miss hearing Dr. Eddy.

Coming from an extensive and sympathetic study of European conditions Dr. Eddy speaks with the eloquence of truth and understanding. He has already visited many colleges in this country and in all his hearers have been stirred. His is an accurate vision of the immense influences and issues in the greatest of the world's present problems, the rehabilitation of the peoples broken by the war, the social and ceremonial reorganization of the nation in which we are living, and the preparation of a new Constitution and a new faith.

Eddy conducted his sessions in such a manner that there will be results were open to question.

He is an accurate vision of the immense influences and issues in the greatest of the world's present problems, the rehabilitation of the peoples broken by the war, the social and ceremonial reorganization of the nation in which we are living, and the preparation of a new Constitution and a new faith.

Eddy has made a careful survey of the world today. In his speeches he is straight as a right line, but the mention of religion sets them aside. For the most part these men are true as steel and straight as a right line, but the mention of religion sets them aside.

Eddy is a man who is true to the point of danger; transparent, without an appearance of artifice, and preaching to fanatics of another faith are not recommended any life insurance companies as pastimes. He understands the human heart and he speaks straight. And the men who shy at T. C. A. posters will do themselves a wrong if they miss hearing Dr. Eddy.

TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS

As in the case of an election not long since, the air on Wednesday morning was filled with an unwelcome odor of dissatisfaction arising from the conduct and results of Tuesday's voting. As long as ballot boxes exist there will be complaints seldom are curbed by the limits of the Constitution and the ultimate result is a hue and cry for a new election.

The Faculty Club will find much pleasure in the second subscription dance to be held in Walker Memorial Monday evening, April 18, at 8:30.

The Mechanical Engineering Society has found it necessary to change the date of their banquet from Thursday to Tuesday, April 16. The key note address will be given by President E. F. Millett of the Department of Safety at the Bureau of Power, and Professor J. R. Mott, who discussed the topics of "Power," and Professor J. R. Mott, who discussed the topics of "Power," and Professor J. R. Mott, who discussed the topics of "Power," and Professor J. R. Mott, who discussed the topics of "Power," and Professor J. R. Mott, who discussed the topics of "Power," and Professor J. R. Mott, who discussed the topics of "Power," and Professor J. R. Mott, who discussed the topics of "Power."