Two Elections to Board
E. W. Thoron '22, has been chosen new Editor-in-Chief of The Tech Engineering News and R. S. Hall '22, as new Treasurer. These elections were formally announced at the recent banquet of the T. E. N., and the men will take office immediately.

Thoron came to Technology from Harvard, where he received his degree of A. B. with the class of '19.

B. W. THORON '22

His war service was rendered in the machine gun division, and he was commissioned as a Second-Lieutenant after attending the Machine-gun Officers camp in 1918. While at Harvard Thoron was prominent in activities, being Treasurer and then President of the Harvard Advocate, and a member of the Spee Club and Signet. At the Institute he has been Editor-in-Chief of the Benchmark, Volume I, and a member of the Editorial Board of THE TECH.

Hall, the new Treasurer, entered Technology from Montclair High School, Montclair, N. J. He is a member of Stylus and two Professional Societies, Corporation XV and the Chemical Society. During his freshman year he was on the staff of THE TECH, and became Managing Editor of the T. E. N. in his sophomore year. His third year he was Assistant Editor and then Editor-in-Chief of the T. E. N. He is also a member of the M. I. T. Press Association, and Director of the Magazine and Trade Journal Group.

COMPLETE T. C. A. CABINET ANNOUNCED FOR NEXT YEAR.

New Constitution Provides for Freshman Cabinet

The complete Cabinet of the T. C. A. for next year, which has just been announced by President A. L. Johnson '22, is as follows: G. W. Potter '22, vice-president; W. M. Ross, secretary; G. P. Schumacker '22, treasurer; M. S. Dimmock '22, boys' work; H. C. Gayley '22, room registry; H. Y. Chittick '22, freshman advisers; Cecil Hubbard '22, foreign students; A. B. Kinzel, G. undergraduate employment bureau; J. S. Raffety '22, church relations; L. S. Vadner '22, handbook editor; C. A. Brantingham '23, membership; J. M. Keck '23, social work; Felix Stapleton '24, industrial service; A. J. McMillan '24, book exchange. R. W. Kenison '24 will be acting business manager of the Handbook in the absence of Bernard Gasser '22, business manager.

These men assume office immediately and at the first Cabinet meeting will select one of their number to sit with the officers as the executive committee. The new constitution which was recently adopted provided for a formation of a freshman cabinet under the direction of the vice-president which will concern itself with the many problems of the first year men.

ENGINEER UNIT R. O. T. C.
GIVES INFORMAL DANCE

A dance will be given by the students who are in the Engineer Unit of the R. O. T. C. on Thursday evening in north hall of Walker. The occasion is to get together and become better acquainted before leaving for the summer camp.

Professor Spofford and Professor Miller and wife have been asked to be present, and from the Corps of Engineers, Captain W. D. Styer and wife, who were at the camp last summer.

There are approximately 80 students going to the summer camp this year at Camp Humphreys, and all students who have signed up for the summer have been invited as guests of the members of the Unit for this dance.

Music will be under the direction of J. S. Doubleday, '30, member of the Unit, and general arrangements are being looked after by S. G. Thomas '22.

EPISCOPAL CLUB NOMINATES
OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR

Banquet Planned to Close Club's Activities for Year

The nominations for the officers of the Episcopal Club for next year are in. The ballots have been mailed to all members of the club. H. W. Dexter Jr. '23 is nominated for president. For secretary, W. A. Gallup '23 has been nominated, and R. E. Downing '22 and H. L. Bond '23 are running for treasurer.

The club is planning a final banquet to close its activity for the present year. It will probably be held in Walker. The plans of the committee in charge of the affair promises some very good speakers, lots to eat, and plenty to make the gathering of the society worth while. It is hoped that all members of the club turn out to dinner. The date will be announced as soon as possible.

E. S. DODGE GOES TO FLORENCE

Mr. E. S. Dodge, who has been teaching advanced design in the Department of Architecture, sailed from New York on last Saturday, having terminated his work here. Mr. Dodge will go at once to Florence, where he has a villa near the city.
