Harvard Hurdle And Field
Strenght Win Double Meet

The Harvard track team defeated Technology 69-48 at the Harvard Stadium last Saturday afternoon. The meet was replete with close races and before a crowd of 2,600 spectators, E. D. Greenul '21 of the crimson accounted for 18 points. George Krugl also of Harvard made a splendid showing, scoring 12 points.

A strong breeze was blowing down the track at the start of the meet which considerably handicapped all of the contestants. Billy MacMahol, one of the fleetest races of the afternoon, jarred one of the wooden horse Palms in the Technology record for the twomile place came in second in the five hurdles, running in good form. Ollie Miles who probably would have placed took a bad fall half way down the line, and was forced to abandon the race.

The team again met and bolted for the last jump, W. Greenol getting third place for Technology.

E. D. Greenul, besides pulling up 18 points for Harvard broke the Harvard record for the broad jump, jumping 11 feet five and one half inches. In the shot put, he outdistanced George Duning and drew second place for the crimson. In the sprints, he was a first place getter, winning both the 100 and 220 yard dashes against a fast field. Frank Howlett showed himself well placing second in both the races.
