Golf Team Wins Match With Purple Saturday

The golf team defeated Williams over the Worcester Country Club course last Saturday. Despite the fact that the opposing golfers had already played over the course on the preceding day, whereas the Engineers had not even time to give the course a once over before the match, the Institute team came through with a 6-3 victory.

Technology won four of the singles and two of the foursomes. The team picking up after its defeat last Friday at the hands of Brae Burn and with more practice expects to show up still better.

This Friday a match is scheduled with Harvard. It will be played at Brae Burn and will start at 2 o'clock. Another match following this will be on Saturday with Brown at Providence, over the Rhode Island Country Club course.

The singles were:
TECHNOLOGY WILLIAMS
M. Schley 0 G. B. Secor 1
G. Clements 0 R. Simmons 1
L. Johnson, capt. 1 S. T. Bourne 0
W. Ballard 1 R. B. Rose 0
M. Freeman 1 J. E. Bumstead 0
Duane 1 H. H. Prescott 0
The foursomes were: Secor and Simmons won over Schley and Clements, technology; Johnson and Ballard, Technology; beat Bourne and Rose, Williams; Freeman and Duane, Technology, vanquished Bumstead and Prescott, Williams.

Cutbill of the B. A. A. was out jogging around the Tech track Friday in preparation for some summer engagements.

Harvard Hurdle And Field Strength Wins Dual Meet

The Harvard track team defeated Technology 69-48 at the Harvard Stadium last Saturday afternoon. The meet was replete with close races and before a crowd of 2000 spectators, E. D. Gourdin '21 of the crimson accounted for 18 points. George Krogness also of Harvard made a splendid showing, scoring 12 points.

A strong breeze was blowing down the track at the start of the meet which subsided considerably as the meet progressed. Billy MacMahon in one of the prettiest races of the afternoon, just missed breaking the Technology record for the two-mile run when he covered that distance in 9m 37 1-5 seconds. His time for the first mile was 4m 42 seconds. Bob Hendrie put up a splendid fight for second place in this event but on the last half lap, H. M. Mahon of Harvard pulled up from fourth place and passed Hendrie.

Elmer Sanborn, captain-elect of the cross country team led Dennis O'Connell of Harvard until the tiny crimson runner burst forth with a sprint too much for Sanborn who seemed to tire and was unable to place better than third. Carol Stone passing him just in front of the tape.

Spitz and Bawden in Thrilling Races
Ted Spitz with a big gust of speed took the quarter mile nosing out Ollie Bardes who was expected to win. Spitz was pushed from the start and covered the distance in 50 3-5 seconds. Mich Bawden ran the prettiest race of the afternoon when he stepped away from a large field of Harvard runners on the chute of the half mile and won by a yard. J. E. Doherty of Harvard started the half mile in the lead and was running at a tremendous clip, but was only able to maintain it for a short distance. In the meantime Mich was covered by other crimson runners but finally managed to pull away from them.

Harvard was at all times master of the hurdles and with the aid of George Krogness, Roscoe Fitts and Dick Whitney scored 15 points in the high and low hurdles. Yardley Chittick, the only Institute hurdler to place came in second in the low hurdles, running in good form. Ollie Mills, who probably would have placed took a bad spill half way down the line, and was forced to drop out. Fitts and Krogness were again team mates and both tied for first place in the high jump, W. B. Greenough getting third place for Technology.

Ed Gourdin, besides piling up 18 points for Harvard broke the Harvard record for the broad jump, leaping a distance of 23 feet 11 7-8 inches. In the shot put, he outdistanced George Dandrow and drew second place for the crimson. In the sprints, he was a shining star, winning both the 100 and 220 yard dashes against a fast field. Frank Howlett showed up very well placing second in both the sprints.
