Dr. Nichol's Who Is to Guide the Destinies of Technology

Search for Successor to Dr. Maclaurin Terminates Finally in Inauguration of Famous Scholar-Scientist

Dr. Gordon Opens Impressive Services

A Record of Continuous News Service for 39 Years

Among the plaudits of the assembled multitude and the cheers of the undergraduate body, President-elect Nichols is being inagurated today as the new President of the Institute. In the building, dedicated to the memory of the third president of the Institute, President Nichols is beginning his task as the guiding spirit of the technical community. Those desiring to hear the new President are too numerous to be admitted to the hall in Walker Memorial, which is packed inside. The steps and side porches are thronged with Alumni, friends and onlookers, all desiring to get a sight of the new man. By 2:30 the greatest innovation of the day will be the arrival of the small army of electricians has been busy installing the gigantic apparatus necessary to operate these phones.

Dr. Willard C. Mohler, President of the Old South Church will open the services with an invocation, a service he performed as a freshman in the buildings in 1914. He was also the pastor of the late Doctor Macfiean, Dr. Willard C. Mohler, will be followed by Doctor Ethel Thomson, acting President of the Institute, who will proceed to the new President.

Dean Burton Gives Farewell Address at Senior Banquet

President-elect Nichols Makes His First Speech to Students

Value of Sober-Mindedness

Dr. Kenneth Fox Nichols, president-elect of the Institute, made his first speech to a body of the students last night in the auditorium. Professor Alan E. Burton made his farewell address to the class, at the same gathering, probably his last speech at the Institute before leaving the Institute next year.

SENIOR WEEK PROGRAM

Sunday, June 6

10:30 Inauguration ceremonies, Doctor George A. Gordon of the Old South Church will open the services with an invocation, a service he performed as a freshman in the buildings in 1914. He was also the pastor of the late Doctor Macfiean, Dr. Willard C. Mohler, will be followed by Doctor Ethel Thomson, acting President of the Institute, who will proceed to the new President.

Four Hundred Students Let Down on Cares and Worries and Enjoy Swimming Pool at Old Nantasket

BACALAOUREATE OPENS 1921 SENIOR WEEK

THE TECH Gives Full Account of Chabrier’s Famous “España”—Composed in Dance Halls of Seville

LIVELY PROGRAM FOR POP TONS NIGHT

THE TECH provides the following guide to the most important programs. Chabrier’s “España” is the highlight of the night.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

BACK ROW: K. R. Sutherland, Garris Bawden, Institute Committee; C. G. Dan- drey, Jr., executive committee; E. W. Booth, executive committee. FRONT ROW: F. B. Kittridge, treasurer, R. H. Smithwick, president, A. D. Harvey, vice-president.

SELF-CONTROL THEME OF SUNDAY SERMON

The value of sober-mindedness in the individual, the community, and the nation was the theme of the baccalaureate sermon by Reverend Doctor Nicholas M. Mann to the Benny Church Sunday. "What America needs today is not more money, more enthusiasm or more sober, but more of the old, many virtues of self-control in word and deed," Doctor Nicholas M. Mann said.

SENIOR IN ATTENDANCE

The value of sober-mindedness in the individual, the community, and the nation was the theme of the baccalaureate sermon by Reverend Doctor Nicholas M. Mann to the Benny Church Sunday. "What America needs today is not more money, more enthusiasm or more sober, but more of the old, many virtues of self-control in word and deed," Doctor Nichols said.

Dr. Nichols opens impressive services.

Four hundred of the Institute Seniors took an afternoon for the solemnity of the Baccalaureate service on Sunday, when they attended the annual Senior picnic, which was held Monday. The hopeful graduates are hoping that they will have the opportunity to have a finished commencement in a finished style. All of them are looking forward to the appearance of the Institute—News Week.

President Maclaurin, who filled the position of D1. Maclaurin, for the long search for a man to fill the position is over.