TECH NIGHT INDEFINITE

Outgoing to the fact that J. C. Willet has left the Institute, the plans for Tech Night are as yet indefinite since there are only two members left on the committee. The committee is to meet next week for the election of a new third member, and arrangements are then expected to be completed without further delay.

TWO INSTITUTE PROFESSORS ON UNEMPLOYMENT BOARD

(Continued from Page 1.)

lems. He was a pioneer in Massachusetts on the Wollaston's Exposition bill and was a member of the State Board of Unemployment. Professor Dewey was born in Vermont. He is an A.B. and LL.D. of the Yale University, of the College of William and Mary, and of a Ph.D. of Johns Hopkins.

Professor Carroll D. Bulman, Professor of Political Economics at Technology, in addition to a high grade of technical knowledge of economic laws, brings to the Council a fifteen years of experience as social worker, aster in bitter legislation and investigator of industrial problems. Profesor Dewey is also a native of the state where he was born, a native of Vermont, and a Ph.D. from the University of Vermont and A. M. from Har- vard.

Mr. Smoak H. Thompson graduated from Technology in 1878 and is an upperclassman in his senior year. During the War he was a major in the Corps of Engineers, U. S. A.

WALKER MEMORIAL NOW OPEN

The Walker Memorial is now open daily from 8 A. M. to 11 P. M. and on Sundays from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Freshmen are reminded of the words of Professor Lowcock, of McGill University, "If I were to found a school or institute or university, I should first open a room or series of rooms where the student is free to live and eat together; then I would obtain books, and lastly,

Use the Walker Memorial as your "chum; meet your fellow students, and, as the founders intended, work in, for and by the social activities of Technology.

TECHNIQUE 1923 OPENS Triple Competitions

(Technique 1923 and 22 and 23 are as yet indefinite since there are only two members left on the Institute, the plans for Tech Night are as yet indefinite since there are only two members left on the committee. The committee is to meet next week for the election of a new third member, and arrangements are then expected to be completed without further delay.

TECH NIGHT INDEFINITE

Outgoing to the fact that J. C. Willet has left the Institute, the plans for Tech Night are as yet indefinite since there are only two members left on the committee. The committee is to meet next week for the election of a new third member, and arrangements are then expected to be completed without further delay.

TECH NIGHT INDEFINITE

Outgoing to the fact that J. C. Willet has left the Institute, the plans for Tech Night are as yet indefinite since there are only two members left on the committee. The committee is to meet next week for the election of a new third member, and arrangements are then expected to be completed without further delay.

TECH NIGHT INDEFINITE

Outgoing to the fact that J. C. Willet has left the Institute, the plans for Tech Night are as yet indefinite since there are only two members left on the committee. The committee is to meet next week for the election of a new third member, and arrangements are then expected to be completed without further delay.

TECH NIGHT INDEFINITE

Outgoing to the fact that J. C. Willet has left the Institute, the plans for Tech Night are as yet indefinite since there are only two members left on the committee. The committee is to meet next week for the election of a new third member, and arrangements are then expected to be completed without further delay.

TECH NIGHT INDEFINITE

Outgoing to the fact that J. C. Willet has left the Institute, the plans for Tech Night are as yet indefinite since there are only two members left on the committee. The committee is to meet next week for the election of a new third member, and arrangements are then expected to be completed without further delay.