T. C. A. INITIATES CAMPAIGN FOR VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS

One of the new candidates for the TECH yearbook, was to speak to the girls on the subject of the importance of their place in the student body for funds. The address was given on August 31, 1920, and later broadcast on the radio.

Budgetary Plans for 1921-22

The following budget for the coming year has been planned to meet the needs of the seventeen divisions of the Institute. The amounts of contributions have been determined by the combined executive committee, and the plan to make this a real affair. The budget includes:

- The amount of contributions has been determined by the combined executive committee.
- The plan to make this a real affair.
- The budget includes:
  - Scholarship Awards
  - Cultural and Educational Activities
  - Student Organizations
  - Athletics
  - Social Events

Pay No Overhead Expenses

This shows the extent and amount of the overhead expenses. All money contributed to the Institute is used for overhead expenses, and the overhead expenses are not by law a part of the annual budget. This is based on the principle that the expenses of an educational institution are not a part of the annual budget.

The annual membership drive of the Institute will be held in conjunction with the combined membership drive of the professional societies. The cost of one year's membership is $2.00. All members and guests of the Institute are expected to pay their dues at the beginning of the term. The amount received will be used to support the activities of the Institute.

The budget includes:

- The expenses of the Institute for the coming year.
- The amount of contributions has been determined by the combined executive committee.
