Vol. XLI No. 32 CAMBRIDGE, MASS., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1921
Price Five Cents

FRESHMEN HOLD MASS MEETING ON THURSDAY

Discus Plans Connected With Field Day Activities

DEAN TALBOT WILL SPEAK

The class of '25 is all set for the annual mass meeting which will be held in room 10-250 on Thursday at seven o'clock, and judging from the enthusiasm manifested, it will practically be disposed of and judging from the demand for speakers, the nucleus of a whole student body will spend the evening in Walker. The committee announces that the final preparations have been completed and with the added attraction of many new features in the program, certain must, they may feel sure that the All-Technology Student of '21 will far surpass those of other years.

Dean Talbot Will Speak

Great interest Centers in Dean Talbot's first address to the student body assembled. As the Assistant General Manager of the railroad team, and general athletic director of the Institute, he will have much to say which will be of absorbing interest to the students and will be keenly listened to. Most enthusiastic was created when he told the students that Coach Frank Kansak, Director of Athletics, the Institute, will represent their activities.

A series of two-minute talks has been arranged for this program. F. C. Cowie '22, General Manager of the Track Team, will deliver the opening talk. G. M. Bell Kirkham '22, the Editor-in-Chief, will present a talk on "Field Day." W. H. R. Moore '22, General Manager of Technology's newspaper, will talk on "The Tech," and H. T. Hulbert '22, who has just visited the Institute of Technology in California, will deliver the closing address. A large audience is expected and the meeting should be a real dress rehearsal for the meeting.

All Students Are Invited

The serving of refreshments will not begin until after the meeting is over. The coffee buckets for the distribution of supper will be placed in the lobby and students are requested to seek employment where they find it.

(Finished on Page 4.)

FRESHMEN HOLD MASS MEETING ON THURSDAY

Discus Plans Connected With Field Day Activities

DEAN TALBOT WILL SPEAK

The class of '25 is all set for the annual mass meeting which will be held in room 10-250 on Thursday at seven o'clock, and judging from the enthusiasm manifested, it will practically be disposed of and judging from the demand for speakers, the nucleus of a whole student body will spend the evening in Walker. The committee announces that the final preparations have been completed and with the added attraction of many new features in the program, certain must, they may feel sure that the All-Technology Student of '21 will far surpass those of other years.

Dean Talbot Will Speak

Great interest Centers in Dean Talbot's first address to the student body assembled. As the Assistant General Manager of the railroad team, and general athletic director of the Institute, he will have much to say which will be of absorbing interest to the students and will be keenly listened to. Most enthusiastic was created when he told the students that Coach Frank Kansak, Director of Athletics, the Institute, will represent their activities.

A series of two-minute talks has been arranged for this program. F. C. Cowie '22, General Manager of the Track Team, will deliver the opening talk. G. M. Bell Kirkham '22, the Editor-in-Chief, will present a talk on "Field Day." W. H. R. Moore '22, General Manager of Technology's newspaper, will talk on "The Tech," and H. T. Hulbert '22, who has just visited the Institute of Technology in California, will deliver the closing address. A large audience is expected and the meeting should be a real dress rehearsal for the meeting.

All Students Are Invited

The serving of refreshments will not begin until after the meeting is over. The coffee buckets for the distribution of supper will be placed in the lobby and students are requested to seek employment where they find it.

(Finished on Page 4.)

FRESHMEN HOLD MASS MEETING ON THURSDAY

Discus Plans Connected With Field Day Activities

DEAN TALBOT WILL SPEAK

The class of '25 is all set for the annual mass meeting which will be held in room 10-250 on Thursday at seven o'clock, and judging from the enthusiasm manifested, it will practically be disposed of and judging from the demand for speakers, the nucleus of a whole student body will spend the evening in Walker. The committee announces that the final preparations have been completed and with the added attraction of many new features in the program, certain must, they may feel sure that the All-Technology Student of '21 will far surpass those of other years.

Dean Talbot Will Speak

Great interest Centers in Dean Talbot's first address to the student body assembled. As the Assistant General Manager of the railroad team, and general athletic director of the Institute, he will have much to say which will be of absorbing interest to the students and will be keenly listened to. Most enthusiastic was created when he told the students that Coach Frank Kansak, Director of Athletics, the Institute, will represent their activities.

A series of two-minute talks has been arranged for this program. F. C. Cowie '22, General Manager of the Track Team, will deliver the opening talk. G. M. Bell Kirkham '22, the Editor-in-Chief, will present a talk on "Field Day." W. H. R. Moore '22, General Manager of Technology's newspaper, will talk on "The Tech," and H. T. Hulbert '22, who has just visited the Institute of Technology in California, will deliver the closing address. A large audience is expected and the meeting should be a real dress rehearsal for the meeting.

All Students Are Invited

The serving of refreshments will not begin until after the meeting is over. The coffee buckets for the distribution of supper will be placed in the lobby and students are requested to seek employment where they find it.

(Finished on Page 4.)

FRESHMEN HOLD MASS MEETING ON THURSDAY

Discus Plans Connected With Field Day Activities

DEAN TALBOT WILL SPEAK

The class of '25 is all set for the annual mass meeting which will be held in room 10-250 on Thursday at seven o'clock, and judging from the enthusiasm manifested, it will practically be disposed of and judging from the demand for speakers, the nucleus of a whole student body will spend the evening in Walker. The committee announces that the final preparations have been completed and with the added attraction of many new features in the program, certain must, they may feel sure that the All-Technology Student of '21 will far surpass those of other years.

Dean Talbot Will Speak

Great interest Centers in Dean Talbot's first address to the student body assembled. As the Assistant General Manager of the railroad team, and general athletic director of the Institute, he will have much to say which will be of absorbing interest to the students and will be keenly listened to. Most enthusiastic was created when he told the students that Coach Frank Kansak, Director of Athletics, the Institute, will represent their activities.

A series of two-minute talks has been arranged for this program. F. C. Cowie '22, General Manager of the Track Team, will deliver the opening talk. G. M. Bell Kirkham '22, the Editor-in-Chief, will present a talk on "Field Day." W. H. R. Moore '22, General Manager of Technology's newspaper, will talk on "The Tech," and H. T. Hulbert '22, who has just visited the Institute of Technology in California, will deliver the closing address. A large audience is expected and the meeting should be a real dress rehearsal for the meeting.

All Students Are Invited

The serving of refreshments will not begin until after the meeting is over. The coffee buckets for the distribution of supper will be placed in the lobby and students are requested to seek employment where they find it.

(Finished on Page 4.)