Kanasty Disappointed with Recent Trials

Chairman Kanasty declared the showing of both class teams in the preliminaries on Thursday to be far below the standards thesms were expect- ed to show.

Although he did not seem to have expected the men, he said, to do as well as his team, he would prefer it if they didn't do so poorly. He added that he was not entirely confident in the matter.

Kanasty further stated that he would not allow the finishers to win any or many of the managers, but that his team would be content with a blank sheet as they were not allowed to obtain any results. He added that he did not appeal to both Sophists and Freshmen, but that his team was composed of many new aspirants needing a chance to show us how to be made on Field Day.

REGISTRATION REACHES 3353

Show Increases of 99 Over Last Year

Registration figures have been officially tabulated for this year and show that the total number of students is 3,353, an increase of 99 over the high mark set last year. The types of students included this year are 412-graduate, 1,003-senior, 1,420-junior, and 480-freshman. There are 156 foreign students pursuing courses for all of the colleges, and 26 special work without classification.

The first 200 students to register before October 1 will have free passes to all classes and activities on the Field Day.

MUSICAL CLUBS STILL HOLD DOORS OPEN TO CANDIDATES

Work on Management and on Clubs Just Begins in Earnest

Although the formal call for candidates for the fall term was made last Thursday, Treasurer F. E. Kellogg '23 of the Combined Musical Societies stated that he had thus far received only 29 applications in all. Arrangements for the various classes are now being completed, and the doors of the club will be open to candidates for the fall term.

In addition to the formal call for candidates, there will be a meeting of the combined club management on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. It is expected that the majority of the members of the combined club management will be present.

The meeting will be held in the American Academy of Arts and Sciences building, 28 Newbury St., Boston.

T. E. H. ON INSTITUTE COMMITTEE

At last month's meeting of the Institute Committee, it was voted that the members of the Harvard and Tech faculties, and representatives of the Tech faculty, would form the committee.

The committee will consist of three members: one from each of the two institutions. The committee will be charged with the duty of investigating the activities of the organization for the term.

NOTICE TO SENIORS

All 1928 men are entitled to have pictures for their permanent records. There are so many good men that it is hard to satisfy everyone. Each man has a right to have his picture taken, but it is not the business of the committee to satisfy everyone. The committee will make every effort to see that the pictures are taken as efficiently as possible. Each man will be given the opportunity to have his picture taken, but the committee cannot guarantee that it will be possible to satisfy everyone.
