Bursar Very Busy Chasing $5 Fines

Jack H. White, bursar, states that he is now engaged in trying to determine which student owes how much and which has paid his bill. He has a minute-by-minute record of all transactions, and he is using this to track down the inconsiderate few who seem to have no conception of the importance of a few dollars.

JUDD HEADS 1921 RED CROSS ROLL CALL

(Continued from Page 2.)

During the fourth hour he was Secretary of the Junior class, member of the Bacteriological Conference and member of the Art Club. He is the only student in the school who has ever been elected to the Junior Prom committee and as Secretary of the Institute Committee. These two men will be aided in organizing the drive by Secretary of the Naval Architecture Society, D. H. Kock 23, President of the Student General Dormitory, and President of the Student General Dormitory.

The drive will be conducted by the committees beginning next Monday, December 1, and will be continued until November 19, 1922. The committee expects to receive the full support of the entire body.

TRY TO SEE LEADING CHEMIST TO ADDRESS SMOKER

It was announced today by the Chemistry Society that a large smoker in favor of the society will be held on the afternoon of Wednesday, November 18, 1922. The lecture will be given by Dr. W. A. Noyes, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The lecture will cover the subject of the nature of the atom and the nature of the forces acting upon it. The lecture will be of especial interest to students of chemistry.

DORMITORY COMMITTEE MAKES FIRST INSPECTION

The first inspection of the dormitories was completed recently by the Dormitory Committee. The committee is well pleased with the condition of the dormitories. The space in the dormitories was filled to capacity and the committee was pleased with the condition of the dormitories.

OFFICERS MEET TO DISCUSS GREATER BOSTON MEMORIAL

A regular meeting of the officers of the Greater Boston Memorial was held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kirwan. The meeting was called to order by President H. F. Talbot, chairman of the committee, and the committee was instructed to continue its investigations and to make plans for the meeting.