JUNIOR TICKETS ON SALE TODAY

Boyle's Copley Plaza Orches- tra Will Furnish Music

Thursday at 12 o'clock the ticket seller at the Institute's Post Office will be open for the sale of tickets to the students and the members of the Institute. It has been announced, this sale will be opened at 11:30 a.m. during the intermission of the first concerts where the orchestra and the north hall will hold no tickets, and the conjugation of the fees that will be spared to the Carroll house the north hall will hold no tickets, and the conjugation of the fees that will be spared to the Carroll house.

All the support tables are being num- bered, and the supper tickets are being printed similar to theatre tickets in that they are numbered by the school printing department just as are the theatre tickets.

(Locale of ticket seller: Post Office)

Dance Is Formal

The members of this I nstitute have been instructed to attend as forms only. Forms will be taken to that last hour of the night is con- cluded with. At the close of selling the tickets, which will be finished on Thursday, the tickets will be numbered and a list of the tickets, which are probably numbered, will be made. The list will be made of the tickets ordered from the Saturday evening concert and the ticket numbers will be taken in that order.

(Locale of ticket seller: Post Office)

Further discussion at the meeting will be devoted to the making of the tickets made for the games, for where, a tournament will be held in which the Institute teams are expected to take part.

(Locale of ticket seller: Post Office)

Arrangements are under way to ar- range a place where the tickets will be sold, and for holding the sale to take place in the main lobby at 1:30 o'clock. A second sale will be held at 8:30 o'clock, when students will be given their tickets to the concert of the evening. Refreshments will be served at 7:30 o'clock and after the concert of the evening.

(Locale of ticket seller: Post Office)

SALLIES' CANVAS

INSTITUTE TODAY

The Salvation Army, which is run- ning a campaign among the students for the propagation of the faith, is extending its activities to the Institute.

(Locale of event: Salvation Army)

VISIT STOCK EXCHANGE TODAY

The trip that Corporation XX has arranged for Sallies members to the Stock Exchange today will be held at 11:30 o'clock. The first party leaving the main hall will leave at 11:30 o'clock, and the second group will leave at 1:45 o'clock. It is estimated that the group will return at 3 o'clock.

(Locale of event: Corporation XX)

JUNIOR TICKETS FOR FRIDAY

The trip arranged by Corporation XX for the students and the members of the Institute to the Stock Exchange today will be held at 11:30 o'clock. The first party leaving the main hall will leave at 11:30 o'clock, and the second group will leave at 1:45 o'clock. It is estimated that the group will return at 3 o'clock.

(Locale of event: Corporation XX)

LECTURE-TALK: NEW YORK TIMES

The Mechanical Engineering Society speaker, which is held in the lecture hall of the Institute every Monday at 8 o'clock, will have its first meeting of this term on Wednesday evening, with Mr. C. J. Hogan, general manager of the Pacific Coast Products Company. The lecture has been titled "The Mechanical Engineering Society Speaker: New York Times," and will be given by Mr. C. J. Hogan, general manager of the Pacific Coast Products Company.

LECTURE-TALK: NEW YORK TIMES

The lecture held in the lecture hall of the Institute every Monday at 8 o'clock will have its first meeting of this term on Wednesday evening, with Mr. C. J. Hogan, general manager of the Pacific Coast Products Company. The lecture has been titled "The Mechanical Engineering Society Speaker: New York Times," and will be given by Mr. C. J. Hogan, general manager of the Pacific Coast Products Company.

LECTURE-TALK: NEW YORK TIMES

The lecture held in the lecture hall of the Institute every Monday at 8 o'clock will have its first meeting of this term on Wednesday evening, with Mr. C. J. Hogan, general manager of the Pacific Coast Products Company. The lecture has been titled "The Mechanical Engineering Society Speaker: New York Times," and will be given by Mr. C. J. Hogan, general manager of the Pacific Coast Products Company.

LECTURE-TALK: NEW YORK TIMES

The lecture held in the lecture hall of the Institute every Monday at 8 o'clock will have its first meeting of this term on Wednesday evening, with Mr. C. J. Hogan, general manager of the Pacific Coast Products Company. The lecture has been titled "The Mechanical Engineering Society Speaker: New York Times," and will be given by Mr. C. J. Hogan, general manager of the Pacific Coast Products Company.