THE TECH

AERO SOCIETY ANNOUNCES ELECTIONS AT SMOKER

The Aeronautical Society will give an informal meeting at 7:30 o'clock. The election results will be announced. The announcements on scientific papers will be made after the election.

TICKETS NEARLY GONE

The tickets for the Cosmopolitan Dance Club to be held Saturday night, are nearly gone. However, there are still a few available for those who wish to secure them.

LOVE BASKETBALL MANAGER

On the eleventh day of the eleventh month, the basketball season begins. The basketball manager, R. K. Thulman, has been elected to the position. The manager is responsible for keeping the men from becoming stale. He will put through plenty of passing practice. The team is ready to begin the season.

UNUSUAL COMEDY AT ST. JAMES

FLORENCE REED PLEASES IN "YOU NEVER CAN TELL"

The Fried Chicken is no exception to the rule. The personnel of the group is pleasantly capable in this category.

THEATRES

Candelabra dancing is called "Branded Rope."

YOU NEVER CAN TELL REVIVED AT THE COPEL

The Jewett Players are especially happy in their revival of George Bernard Shaw's "You Never Can Tell." The play has several revivals. The show is a hit. The tickets will be sold at the door. The play will be given on Tuesday and Thursday nights.

In conclusion, the Tech is prepared and ready for the new season. The Aeronautical Society is looking forward to its meeting on Saturday night. The basketball manager is ready to begin the season. The Fried Chicken is ready to please. The Jewett Players are happy with their play. The Tech is looking forward to its upcoming events.