Section Leaders will Canvass for Red Cross

An important meeting of the underclassmen of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity will be held last Wednesday. Plans were announced at this meeting for the canvass of students for the Red Cross, which are to take place today from 2 to 3 P.M.

INSTITUTE SWIMMER SAVES BOY AT Y. M. C. A. POOL

An unidentified boy was rescued from the Y. M. C. A. pool Monday afternoon when he was swept out of the pool by the revolving pool filter. The boy was swimming with a class when he was thrown. One of the swimmers nearby noticed his predicament and an eyewitness man who was standing on the edge of the pool called the attention of a boy in the pool to the danger. The boy who has had his eyes closed and his rescuers en- oped recognition due, it seems, to the bystanders to query them on their identity.

TOP NOTCH HARRIERS PLentiful in I. G. C. R.

Strong Competition Looked for in Thirteenth Classic

BEAVERS ENTER STRONG TEAM

From a field of 128 runners competing 18 miles it will exceed the efforts of two races, a running and the winning team of the 1820.

BEAVERS EIGHTH IN PENN STATE, SIXTH IN YALE, THIRD IN LAFAYETTE A

A native and native of Sium, who won the division of the nation, is the only school having turned in complete 24's.

The next in motion passed was that the student government.

The committee is to meet next Thursday at 1:15 p.m., the necessary $1,000, that a considerable aid be made to the Society, will consist of four other members.

M. E. S. HEAR FORESTER

The election of the officers of the Forest Section will be held in room 301 at 8 o'clock.

FRESHMEN ELECTIONS DISCUSSED AT MEETING

M. E. S. HEAR FORESTER

Last night at the Mechanical Engineering Society smaller in the main hall of the New York Institute for the Education of the West Coast Forest Products Industry, gave an illustrated talk on "Out West The Region." The picture showed some of the lumbering and logging processes in the Douglas fir region; some of the standing features of the great North- west, as well as the fire and rescue work, logging, logging transport, and mill operations.

Metallurgist Speaks This Afternoon

This afternoon in the 57th streets. The designs were accepted for percentage enrollment. The committee has expressed the intention of entering the service for percentage enrollment. The committee has expressed the intention of entering the service for percentage enrollment. The committee has expressed the intention of entering the service for percentage enrollment. The committee has expressed the intention of entering the service for percentage enrollment.

The third plan is one which is very complete renovation of uniforms to be done.

Uniform will closely resemble that of the Beavers are both expected to give an illustrated address on architectural prowess and for his work in the United States, as a young man, an instructor in phy- stiology, was born in 1886, he became Director of the Rock- ertson, was appointed chairman of the then Rodeo Cross, and later moved to Newbury- port where it will be in- stalled. The others already selected are C. H. Stovall, representing the Theothers chose to represent the men of the south by being on the Board of Directors, but is open to anybody that was a student government.

Section Leaders will Canvass for Red Cross

Student government has just made its appearance at the Institute. The Department of Architecture has appointed a section of the student government.

All questions of hospitality will be heard by means of an honor system. It will also have jurisdiction over all matters of conduct.

The mid-term marks for the fall semester are due now, and they must be taken. These marks will be sent to the office in an examination office. This, he states, is the necessary step in the process of forming the class meeting.

UNIFORM POPULAR WITH STUDENTS

It was first moved, seconded, and adopted for the photograph competition, which is to be held some time in December.