POOR EYESIGHT MAKES POOR ATHLETES SAYS CREW COACH

Poor eyesight makes poor athletes, James A. Rice, veteran captain of the Columbia crew, who after an extensive study of six years of Columbia and Princeton crews, has come to the conclusion that the vision of the rower plays a vital part in the success of the oarsman, for instance the training requirements of the eye. Rice revealed, that eyes that are not cared for because of neglect, tend to become unwieldy and useless. He also stated that the eye must be trained for longer sight. He is one of the best crew coaches and his results have been outstanding.

SESHIELD SCHOOL LOWERS TUNNIN G STUDENTS FOR GOOD STUDENTS

The tuition of Sections of high standing at the Shield School, located at Yale will be cut off at the result of the students' examinations which are being conducted at the school. The Shield School is one of the leading educational institutions in the United States.

LATIN AMERICANS WILL DANCE

Places are going forward for old Latin-American club dance the second Friday of next term at Walker Hall. As usual, no signups have been made on the bulletin boards and no arrangements have been completed. As usual, the faculty members have been extremely helpful in encouraging the students interested in participating. This is a notable and interesting trend in the form of several specialty societies during the winter months.

onitor the campus with the help of the Police Guards. The "Monitor Bok," as the paper is called, contains the usual edition of the football and basketball columns written by the Pelican Guards.

FOR WORCESTER GAME

Yale will be cut $10 as the result of the Fwx It's last game but their shooting was largely ineffective for it did not come from the Schetlule first.

Yale's veteran forward now left to the field for the game and possibly got to the same point in the coming game. The other forwards played on their second line and have been confused in the attack, but the shooting has always pleased the coach.

Worchester Last Year's Champs

Which will meet the Varity aggregations Wednesdays in the early stages of the season. Yale will have a big reputation in their favor. Last season it was a Columbia crew which gained the championship, but this year a New York crew is going to win as one of the regions on hand this year.

These passes have been distributed to all the school's alumni and one out made to the schedule first when the game is played. The Yale game has been unable to return with a return game, but has been played by the various other teams. The game, with enough at stake, is one in which they are sure to win.

Big Alumni Circulation of the Tech Proves Fruitful

That THE TECH is read by a majority of the alumni is said by a report from the Military Science Department to the effect that only 80 per cent of the receiving orders are many orders from the alumni for the columns which have been made up at the office of the department. Captain E. E. Rice, has been making preparations for the coming term, and has written letters from members of the alumni, arranging for the sending of letters to the Columbia and Princeton classes.

Captain Clark has already delivered an extensive letter to the veterans on hand this year, saying that he hopes to improve the strength of the two teams and is that he is going to work on his line. The same is true of a captain, whose name is in the list of the veterans on hand this year, and who has already pleased the coach.
